April is Financial Literacy Month!

Bank On Louisville is Celebrating by spreading the word about all the opportunities around Louisville that can help people get the most out of their money. Look below to find a financial literacy event that interests you & start making positive financial changes today!

Bank On Louisville's Poster Contest, "Smart Money Choices Open Doors to Bright Futures."

Students are invited to submit artwork to earn savings bonds & other prizes. All submissions will be on display at Baxter Community Center on April 24. Posters should illustrate effective ways to manage money. For rules & an entry form visit www.BankOnLouisville.com

Financial Success 101

Thursday April 5 until Thursday, May 3, 6pm until 8pm at Kingdom Fellowship.

Janet Fulton will teach a free five class series using the Financial Opportunity: Family Progress curriculum. To register, send your name, address, e-mail address and phone number to danah@w4w.org or call 502-561-8060, extension 219.

Foreclosure Clinic

Tuesdays at 11am & Thursdays at 4pm at the Legal Aid Society, 416 W. Muhammad Ali Blvd.

Attorneys will answer questions about foreclosure & provide advice on alternatives. Contact the Legal Aid Society at 584-1254 or magnew@laslou.org to make your reservation.

Understanding Credit & Managing Debt

Monday, April 9, 6pm to 8pm, 927 S. 2nd St. or Saturday, April 14, 6pm to 8pm, 4303 W. Broadway or Wednesday, April 11, 12pm until 2pm at 4303 W. Broadway.

To ensure class begins on time, staff will stop accepting participants 5 minutes before class starts, plan to be 15 minutes early. For more information please contact the Center for Women & Families at 581-7200 or http://www.thecenteronline.org/

Confident Interviewing

Tuesday, April 10, 2pm, The Job Shop at the Main Library, 301 York Street, 2nd floor

Join the Louisville Free Public Library's Job Shop for tips & strategies from a professional recruiter to help you appear calm, cool, & collected during interviews, even if you're not. Visit www.LFPL.org for more information.

AARP Tax Assistance

Tuesday, April 3, 12pm until 4pm, Portland Library, 3305 Northwestern Parkway, 40212

Taxpayers are served on a first-come, first serve basis. The free service is available to anyone whose needs fall within the training & skills of the preparers. For more information visit www.aarp-tax-aide-lou.org or call 574-1744.

Start Fresh!

Saturday, April 14, 10am until 12pm at the NIA Center, 2900 West Broadway.

Bank On Louisville's Start Fresh! class topics include checking account features & fees, saving money, budgeting, how to balance a checking account, fraud prevention & identity theft. Call 502-458-8840, extension 1384 to reserve your space!

Last Day to File Taxes: Tuesday, April 17!

Foundations of Money Management with PNC Bank

Saturday, April 21, 10:30am until 12:30pm at 500 W. Jefferson St.

This workshop will teach participants how to use bank products & how to gain control over finances. Topics include; why it is important to have a checking account, managing a checking account, & an overview of products & services. Reservations needed & can be sent via email or voice mail at 581-2576 or marita.willis@pnc.com

Paying for College: Adults Returning to School

Monday, April 23, 6:30pm, Fairdale Library, 10616 West Manslick Rd., 40118

Interested in attending college? The Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority will discuss financial aid for non-traditional students. For more information call 375-2051.

Bank On Louisville visits Baxter Community Center

Tuesday, April 24, 2pm until 6pm, 1125 Cedar Court.

Come on down for a financial literacy celebration with food, door prizes, snacks & fun! Submissions from the poster contest, "Smart Money Choices Open Doors to Bright Futures," will be displayed & participants can vote on their favorite!

Savvy Social Security Planning

Thursday, April 26, 1pm until 2:30pm, Newburg Library, 4800 Exeter Avenue, 40218.

What every baby boomer should know before applying for benefits. Presented by Randy Deaton of the Society of Financial Awareness. Call 479-6160 for more information

Find more financial literacy opportunities on the Upcoming Events page at www.BankOnLouisville.com!

BANK ON LOUISVILLE
Everyone is welcome.