

Summer Day Camps

ANN ARBOR PARKS & RECREATION

It's not too early to start thinking about what your kids will do once school is out for the summer. Registration for summer fun with Ann Arbor day camps begins Friday, Feb. 1. Fun-filled, educational and character-building experiences include swimming, kayaking, golf, science, crafts and more (www.a2gov.org/camps). We're happy to offer an early bird discount of $20 off to those that register for Fuller or Buhr Park Pool day camps by March 15. City of Ann Arbor Parks & Recreation day camps are licensed by the State of Michigan, and our staff are certified in American Red Cross CPR and First Aid.

Gallup and Argo river camps are run by experienced instructors that understand the safety of on-water activities while balancing the importance of fun and adventure. Our popular river camp programs are designed by outdoor educators that know the significance of teaching kids how to explore and love their natural world; and to do so from the seat of a boat!
