NATIONAL VOTER REGISTRATION DAY

Celebrating the legacy of the Voting Rights Act with a call to action on National Voter Registration Day

Sept. 22, 2015, 11:30 a.m.
City Hall Rotunda

Secretary of State Steve Simon and other speakers will recall the passage of the Voting Rights Act in 1965 and discuss the ongoing importance of voter registration today as part of the program that will also include live music performances by a special joint gospel choir featuring Robert Robinson.

City staff will highlight voter education resources, including registration toolkits, voting equipment demonstrations, absentee voting information, and tools to engage residents and grow connections ahead of the 2016 Presidential Election.
