Frequently Asked Questions

Who is invited to attend?

Elected officials, community partners, business leaders, and other stakeholders. If you know another stakeholder that is interested in attending, please have them contact White House Staff.

What is the format of this event?

The event will include remarks from Senior Administration Officials and a series of discussion panels on topics related to community revitalization (e.g. Social Impact Investing and Upward Mobility and Entrepreneurship and Access to Capital). The focus is to inform and guide attendees on programs and resources available to local communities.

What information do I need to submit in order to attend?

Clicking on the RSVP link above will lead you to the information you must submit in order to register. Please do not fill out this information if you cannot attend. Unregistered guests cannot be accommodated.

What if the link does not work?

If the RSVP link does not work or will not properly load, try using a different browser. If you are still unable to RSVP, please contact White House staff.

How do I know if I successfully RSVP'd?

You will receive an automatic confirmation that your information has been submitted. If you RSVP and do not receive a confirmation, please check your spam folder. Registered attendees will receive additional information, including an agenda and logistics, the week of the event.

What items are and are not permitted?

Permitted items include purses, backpacks, phones, etc. Prohibited items include guns, ammunition, fireworks, electric stun guns, mace, martial arts weapons/devices, or knives of any size. If you are unsure about a certain item, please feel free to reach out to our office for clarification.
