LOUDMOUTH EDUCATION AND TRAINING THEATRE GROUP

AIMS & OBJECTIVES

Safe and Sound is a theatre in education programme on safety and respect in teenage relationships. Safe and Sound helps young people aged 12 upwards to think about the quality of the relationships they develop, raises their awareness of the misuse of power and control and safeguard themselves against abusive relationships.

You will also be able to:

- Talk directly to services that work with victims and survivors of domestic abuse
- Visit information stands of agencies working to support victims and perpetrators of domestic abuse and take away free resources

Practitioners will:

- leave with a better understanding and empathy towards teenage partner abuse and families involved with domestic abuse
- be better able to assess risk and identify power and control relationships
- have increased knowledge about local services and providers

Format:

- Registration 2.30 – 3.00
- 3.00 to 4.00 presentations from 4 local providers about the service they offer – Police, Victim Support, CRUSH Programme, TAMHS / PSHE
- Refreshments from 4 – 4.30 to include networking
- Loudmouth Theatre Presentation of Safe and Sound 4.45 – 6.15 including Q and A
