Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) Renewal Process
Thursday, Dec. 18, 2014
4-5 p.m. (Eastern)

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) invites you to participate in a stakeholder teleconference on Thursday, Dec. 18, 2014, from 4 to 5 p.m. (Eastern) to discuss the DACA renewal process.

On June 5, 2014, USCIS announced a DACA renewal process and published a revised Form I-821D, Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals, that individuals must use to renew or request DACA for the first time. On Nov. 20, 2014, the president announced a series of executive actions on immigration, including extending the period of DACA and work authorization from two years to three years.

During the teleconference, USCIS officials will share information about the DACA renewal process and extended DACA validity period, as well as answer your general questions.
