Teleconference Invitation

Cuban Family Reunification Parole Program
Wednesday, March 18, 2015
2-3:30 p.m. (Eastern)

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) in coordination with the U.S. Department of State invites you to participate in a teleconference on Wednesday, March 18, from 2 to 3:30 p.m. (Eastern) to discuss changes to the Cuban Family Reunification Parole (CFRP) program. The changes require that new applicants file a Form I-131, Application for Travel Document, and fee or request for fee waiver in order to apply for the program when invited by the Department of State's National Visa Center after February 17, 2015. During this teleconference, USCIS officials will discuss the changes to the CFRP program and address questions.

Under this program, certain Cubans in Cuba who are beneficiaries of approved family-based immigrant visa petitions may be considered for parole to come to the United States before their immigrant visa priority dates become current.
