White House Task Force on New Americans
Tuesday, April 21, 2015
2 – 3:00 p.m. (Eastern)

The White House Task Force on New Americans and U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) invite you to participate in a stakeholder engagement on Tuesday, April 21, from 2 to 3:00 p.m. (Eastern). The topic will be the Task Force report "Strengthening Communities by Welcoming All Residents: A Federal Strategic Action Plan on Immigrant and Refugee Integration."

Established by President Obama in November 2014, 16 federal departments, agencies, and White House offices are represented on the Task Force. The report, which was submitted to the President, provides an action plan that sets 16 core goals that will be achieved, in part, through 48 recommended actions that Task Force members will pursue to help:

- Build welcoming communities;
- Strengthen existing pathways to naturalization and promote civic engagement;
- Support skill development, foster entrepreneurship and safeguard workers; and
- Expand opportunities for linguistic integration and education

During this teleconference, Task Force members and USCIS officials will provide an overview of the report, discuss key recommendations, and answer your questions.
