

Webinar Series

“Children and Disasters: An Integrated Approach to Disaster Planning, Response, and Recovery”

Monday, April 28, 2014, 3:00 – 4:30 p.m. EST

Presenters

Jeanne-Aimee De Marrais, Save the Children
Sunday Gustin, New Jersey Department of Children and Families
Sharon Hawa, National Center for Missing & Exploited Children
Tala Hooban, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
Lauralee Koziol, Federal Emergency Management Agency
Bruce Lockwood, Former Commissioner, National Commission on Children and Disasters
Trevor Rikken, American Red Cross
Jenny Wiley, Missouri Department of Mental Health

Presentation

This NMCS webinar will focus on whole community partners working together to integrate children’s disaster related needs and implementation at the National, State and local levels. Key discussion areas will include emergency preparedness planning, behavioral health, reunification, sheltering, and establishment of children’s task forces.

Connectivity:

Click Connect to join the Webinar (with Closed Captioning) to receive both the audio and video through your computer with the greatest clarity. Please enter your name as a “Guest” when joining in.

Teleconference number for remote mobile users (limited number of phone lines):
800-320-4330, Pin: 587968

Webinar Recording

A recording of the Webinar will be provided soon after the presentation and posted on the National Mass Care Strategy Website