

Creative and Novel Ideas in HIV Research

The Creative and Novel Ideas in HIV Research (CNIHR) grant programme is currently accepting applications from early-stage scientists without prior experience in HIV research. The CNIHR programme welcomes innovative proposals to answer essential questions in HIV research, including emerging issues of long-term survival with HIV infection, prevention of HIV transmission and research toward a cure.

Apply at www.cnihr.org by 16 October 2013

