

FASD: Best Practices in the Last Frontier

May 22-24, 2013
Hilton Hotel, Anchorage

- Hosted by the Arctic FASD Regional Training Center at the UAA Center for Behavioral Health Research & Services, with support from the Centers for Disease Control & Prevention (CDC) and the Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority
- Designed for a wide variety of health, allied health, education, social, and human services professionals and providers, as well as the learning and networking needs of individuals with FASD and their families
- National and local experts will address such topics as diagnosis, intervention, treatment, transition to adulthood, and advocacy
- Pre-conference FASD 101 & FASD 201 workshops, Tuesday May 21
- Participants may be eligible to receive a training access grant to help them attend the conference
 - For families and individuals experiencing an FASD
 - For professionals working with families and individuals experiencing an FASD
 - Information on these grants will be available in March
- Opportunity for professionals, families, and individuals with an FASD to share their experiences
 - Conference presentations
 - Panel discussions
 - Posters
 - Networking
- More information about registration and conference access grants is available at akfasd2013.org/
- Registration starts March 15, 2013!

ARCTIC FASD REGIONAL TRAINING CENTER
UAA CENTER FOR BEHAVIORIAL
HEALTH RESEARCH & SERVICES

3401 East 42nd Avenue
Suite 200
Anchorage, AK 99508

Phone: 907.786.6381
Fax: 907.786.6382

E-mail:
arcticfasdrtc@uaa.alaska.edu

UAA Center for Behavioral
Health Research & Services
UNIVERSITY of ALASKA ANCHORAGE

