Presenters: Mishka Terplan, MD, MPH, and Tricia Wright, MD, MS

Course Description: Please join the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG) for an upcoming free, 1 CME credit webinar, Caring for Pregnant and Breastfeeding Women with Opioid Use Disorder on Tuesday, June 11, 2019, 12:00 p.m.–1:00 p.m. ET, 9:00 a.m.–10:00 a.m. PT. This webinar, free and open to all, will review evidence-based treatment for pregnant and breastfeeding women with opioid use disorder. Register at pathlms.com/acogwebinars/courses/12065.

Upon completion of the webinar, participants will be able to:

1. Contrast methadone and buprenorphine for the treatment of opioid use disorder.
2. Counsel pregnant women receiving pharmacotherapy regarding neonatal withdrawal, pain management, contraception, and breastfeeding concerns.
3. Understand how stigma and punitive policies serve to harm women and children by preventing them from obtaining necessary health care.

Following the live presentation, the webinar will be archived at acog.org/sud for convenient viewing. The archived webinar will not provide CME credit.

This webinar is supported by Cooperative Agreement NU38OT000287-01-00 from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.
