Behavioral Health Workforce Wellness

The overall wellness of our behavioral health workforce is a priority and necessity.

Secondary Trauma and its Impact on Behavioral Health Providers

Challenges of new workflows, job insecurity, isolation from colleagues, and a public health crisis can cause distress for all involved but may impact providers uniquely. Attending to personal well-being during this time is just as important as supporting the individuals served. Providers are encouraged to be aware of the toll that working with others in distress can have on their own mental well-being.

Delivery Method: Online through Zoom

Contact: Jill Ramsey, 907-264-6228, jdramsey2@alaska.edu

- November 15

Emergency Responder and Support Training Series

In coordination with the State of Alaska, DHSS, Office of Substance Misuse and Addiction Prevention, a series of trainings focused on emergency responders is being developed for delivery throughout the year. Though the focus is on emergency responders some of the trainings will be open for public registration.

Trauma Informed Care

This training explores how a Trauma-Informed Care approach can support the work of Frontline workers across Alaska. Participants will learn concepts associated with the impact of various types of trauma and how that information affects critical interactions. In discussing trauma, whether individual, complex, current, historical, or multi-generational, participants will explore strategies to improve their work with the people they serve.

Private trainings available upon request

Delivery Method: Online through Zoom

Employment Related Trainings

Self-Employment 1

Self-employment is a very viable alternative to the more typical supported employment for people with disabilities who want to work. It offers opportunities for accommodations that a job sometimes cannot. This training reviews the basic elements in self-employment, business proposals, business plan sections and their purpose, and products/markets.

Delivery Method: Online through Zoom

Contact: Holli Yancey, hayancey@alaska.edu

Customized Employment

This 12-hour distance delivered course provides an overview of Customized Employment and the Discovery process, an alternative to traditional comparative vocational assessment procedures. Customized Employment is to assist individuals with significant disabilities to obtain competitive, integrated employment.

Delivery Method: Online via Zoom

Contact: Holli Yancey, hayancey@alaska.edu

PASS Plans as Employment Funding Source for Students & Young Adults

This training reviews the criteria and structure of the Plans to Achieve Self Support (PASS), which have been used by people with disabilities, parents, and organizational personnel for several years to provide services, equipment and training to employment seekers.

Delivery Method: To be determined

Contact: Holli Yancey, hayancey@alaska.edu

Save the Date!

Disability & Aging Summit

The goal of the Aging and Disability Summit is to further discuss the national and state trends regarding the aging population to include individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and how it relates to Alaska. The Summit is hosted by the Special Olympics and will be a two-day, in-person event this year! Stay tuned for more information on how to register.

Delivery Method: In-Person

Contact: Lisa Cauble, 264-6251, lcauble@alaska.edu

Online/Anytime Trainings

Assistance with Self-Administration of Medication (ASAM)

This training meets the Senior and Disability Services Home and Community Based waiver regulations for staff training on Assistance with Self Administration of Medication. It complies with state regulation 7 AAC 130.227 and 7 AAC 125.090 (d)(3).

Contact: Betsy Chivers for more information, bchivers@alaska.edu or 907-264-6233

Cost: $20

Fall Prevention for Direct Service Providers

Falls are a common and serious health threat to individuals with disabilities including adults 65 and older. Every year more than 1 in 4 older adults falls, but more than half of those who fall don't tell their healthcare provider leading to high healthcare costs and hospitalization. This training and the resources shared will help direct service providers self-assess the environment of the assisted living home (ALH) or client's environment to put fall prevention strategies into practice.

Contact: Jill Ramsey, 907-264-6228, jdramsey2@alaska.edu

Cost: $40

Introduction to Disabilities

Provides a foundation of understanding disabilities, an Alaskan history of serving people with disabilities, a broad base examination of routine supports, and a review of disabilities often supported in the workplace.

Contact: Betsy Chivers for more information, bchivers@alaska.edu or 907-264-6233
