

Consider how confident you could be with your retirement investments

If making investment decisions seems overwhelming or you don't have the time or expertise to manage your Smart Savings Plan investments, consider Nationwide ProAccount®.

Through ProAccount, you get professional money managers to select and manage your investments based on your goals. And ProAccount easily keeps up as your goals change when you update your profile through My Interactive Retirement Planner<sup>SM</sup> or contact us directly.

To discuss how enrolling in Nationwide ProAccount could benefit you, contact your Nationwide Retirement Specialist today.

This material is not a recommendation to buy or sell a financial product or to adopt an investment strategy. Investors should discuss their specific situation with their financial professional.

Investing involves market risk, including possible loss of principal. Actual investment results will vary depending on your investment and market experience, and there is no guarantee that fund objectives will be met.

Neither Nationwide nor any of its representatives give investment, legal or tax advice. Please consult your own counsel before making decisions about retirement plan participation.

Nationwide ProAccount is offered by Nationwide Investment Advisors LLC (NIA), an SEC-registered investment adviser. NIA has hired Wilshire Associates (Wilshire) as the independent financial expert (IFE) to provide professional account management based on your age and your tolerance for risk. NIA assesses participants an asset-based fee for the managed account services.

NIA is not a party to the endorsement arrangement between Nationwide and NACo or the endorsement arrangement between Nationwide and IAFF-FC. NIA has not engaged NACo or IAFF-FC to solicit retirement plan participants as clients for Nationwide ProAccount.

My Interactive Retirement Planner is a service mark of Nationwide Life Insurance Company.
