

Spending more time in “The Other Bar” than in your office, in court, or meeting with clients?

If you or a friend have this kind of “recreational” drug habit, including alcohol, you should attend our program.

Substance Abuse in the Legal Profession

December 2019

Thursday, December 12, 2019

Speaker: Mr. David Mann
Northern California Consultant, The Other Bar

1 Hour MCLE Competence Issues Credit**

Mann approaches this very serious topic in a manner that incorporates humor and irony and invites attorneys to engage in a bit of sometimes much-needed self-reflection. He incorporates his own situation as a case study of an addict. You will laugh, you may be shocked and you will be tempted to cry.

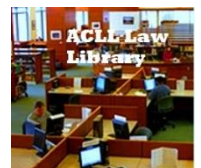

He will review the brain chemistry of addiction and alcoholism, and discuss the behavioral and health consequences of the disease. The personality traits of attorneys and the qualities of the legal profession combine to make lawyers significantly more susceptible to addiction, and more difficult to treat than the general population. A self-diagnosis exercise is provided for attorneys who are concerned that they may have a problem. He discusses both systemic and individual solutions to the problem, with references to strategies and resources available to attorneys. The ethical rules concerning substance abuse are cited.
