

THINKING BACK TO CHILDHOOD

Thinking back to childhood is sure to bring up many memories. Think of one memory in particular that conjures up good feelings. Write two to three paragraphs about that memory in the space below. Draw a picture of it. Make up a song or a poem about it. If you like, share it with others, and ask if they have similar memories.