Along with the Rotary Club and the City of El Segundo, she helped deliver sports uniforms, playground equipment, and even a fire truck donated by the City. She and Karl had a particular fondness contributing to Castaway Kids, an organization in Guaymas that assists with education and housing for children and families.

In retirement, she served as Past President Advisor to the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and regularly attended weekly Rotary Meetings. Sandy was a life-long crafter who loved to sew, knit, crochet, and quilt and loved to give away her creations.
