SITUATION
Current Situation:	Crews continue to work to re-abandon the well at 4360 Via Marina. No operations that may cause loud noise and/or vibrations are planned, and daily monitoring indicates that well operations are not affecting air quality. The Los Angeles County Department of Public Health, Los Angeles County Fire Department-Health Hazardous Materials Division, and the California Division of Oil, Gas, and Geothermal Resources continue to monitor the situation. If you smell gas in this vicinity, please leave the area and dial 9-1-1. The Community Health, Safety and Notification Plan is available on the Department of Conservation’s website at https://www.conservation.ca.gov/dog/Pages/DOW-RGC10-well.aspx. For more information on the project, call the incident information line at (310) 908-1236 or email mdrhotelshotline@gmail.com. An emergency response to the property last week was unrelated to the re-abandonment project. Los Angeles County firefighters responded to a call at about 1:40 a.m. Friday, March 1, for a power extension cord that was sparking at the adjacent construction site. Upon arrival, crews discovered the cord was overheated and unplugged it. There was no danger to residents of surrounding properties.
