Honoring individuals and organizations leading innovative collaborative efforts to reduce and eradicate domestic violence in the City of Los Angeles through systemic change during Domestic Violence Awareness Month

The Marjorie Braude Award was developed in 2005, to commemorate the ground-breaking work she did in bringing together diverse and distinct entities in the City of Los Angeles that impact and are impacted by intimate partner violence. The formation of the City's DV Task Force showed insight and determination to bring awareness to the City Council, and she was the first recipient of that award, posthumously. Her vision was remarkable, and we continue to honor those who have followed in her footsteps.
