

Curator Security, Inc is owned by professionals that have over 55 years both in the law enforcement community as well as the private security industry. Our company slogan is "Your Trusted Guardians"...Curator in Latin means "Guardian"...We strive within our company to provide our clients with the best trained and professional officers available and the most outstanding aspect of Curator Security is the fact that we do what we say we will do. When the client says they want something completed we at Curator Security, Inc will attempt in every way possible to perform to our clients highest expectations.

Curator Security, Inc employs the best qualified officers thru a very strict screening process. Curator Security, Inc attempts to hire United States Military Veterans when at all possible. All officers qualify with their weapons on a quarterly basis and have continuous training both regarding BSIS requirements as well as company additional requirements.

Curator Security, Inc carries all the required insurance plus additional insurance to provide our clients with the best possible security staff in the industry.
