

Construction Fundamentals

October 1 – November 12, 2019!

Start a new career in the high demand building trades and construction industry in less than three months! Gain essential skills interpreting trade calculations, taking accurate measurements, blueprint reading, handling equipment and materials, basic building and installation methods and practicing safety construction techniques according to Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) standards.

Program includes*:

- Accelerated 7-week training program designed with the North State Building Industry Association
- OSHA 10 certification
- Tuition-free, noncredit course series (CET 805, 806 & 807) taught by Sierra College faculty
- Hands-on job experience through paid externship placement with local industry partners who are hiring!

CET 0805 Introduction to Industry and Occupational Safety for the Building Trades starts October 1! Apply to Sierra College and register now at www.sierracollege.edu

Free information sessions:

Want to learn more before you register? Sign-up to attend a free info session at www.sierracommunityed.org

- Wednesday, August 28th 6 - 7:30pm at the Sierra College Roseville Center, 316 Vernon St., Roseville, Room 255
- Thursday, September 19th 6 - 7:30pm at Sierra College Rocklin Campus, 5100 Sierra College Blvd., Rocklin, Room H-5

**Must be a minimum of 18 years old to enroll in course*