Crisis Residential Treatment Services

Service Description

Crisis Residential Treatment Programs provide short-term, intensive, recovery-oriented care. Services are available 24/7 for adults 18 and older with acute/serious mental illness, including co-occurring SUD. These programs offer voluntary, unlocked, community-based, home-like care that serve as an alternative to hospitalization or a step-down from inpatient care. Services include behavioral health treatment, psychiatric and nursing support, medication management, care coordination, peer support, crisis stabilization and discharge planning to support recovery and community transition.
