

Chamber and Library launch "Business Book Club"

Does your nightstand look like an MBA reading list – inspiring, branding, selling, leading, managing, planning, marketing, communicating, investing, and profiting?

"Business Book Club" – a new partnership between the Chamber and the Louisville Public Library – invites authors to Superior to share unique success strategies. The first FREE event will be on Monday, March 16, from 5:00-6:00 pm at the Rocky Mountain Fire Station #5 Community Room, 2701 S. Indiana Street, Superior. One quick hour of leadership, open to the public.

The first visiting author will be Edgar Papke, author of The Elephant in the Board Room: How Leaders Use and Manage Conflict to Reach Greater Levels of Success. You do not have to read the book ahead of time! Books will be available for purchase and signing.

"Superior residents invest in the Louisville Public Library, so we are happy to bring a library learning opportunity into the Town's borders," said T.J. Sullivan, Chamber Executive Director. "This will be a lot of fun for those who enjoy reading for professional development."

RSVP at <http://member.superiorchamber.com/events/details/business-book-club-edgar-papke-elephant-in-the-boardroom-11813>

