

Household Hazardous Waste & Hard to Recycle Event

Saturday, April 13, 2024

Event registration is required: bit.ly/Recycle2024

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

Boulder County Hazardous Materials Management Facility (HMMF)

- Paint (oil-based, latex, & aerosols)
- Paint thinners & strippers
- Pesticides, insecticides, & fungicides
- Cleaning products
- Car care products
- Propane cylinders, 1-lb (Coleman-size)
- Fluorescent bulbs (straight tubes & CFLs)
- Fuels (diesel, gasoline, & kerosene)
- Photographic chemicals
- Thermometers & mercury containing devices
- Batteries (car, household, & rechargeable)
- Pool/spa chemicals
- PCB ballasts

- Drums larger than 5 gallons
- Ammunition, explosives, fireworks, & flares
- Asbestos-containing insulation, tile, & linoleum
- BBQ propane tanks larger than 1-lb, compressed gas cylinders
- Medical waste
- Expired meds
- Sharps
- Non-hazardous wastes
- Radioactive materials
- Business waste - small quantities accepted by appointment only at HMMF (see website for details)

Eco-Cycle Center for Hard to Recycle Materials (CHaRM)

- Computers, laptops, cell phones, & tablets
- Gas-powered mowers
- Plastic bags, bubble wrap, & thin foam packing sheets
- Small scrap metal (4' length/width maximum)
- Bike tires & tubes
- Books & manuals

Items for a fee (Town will cover 50%)

- CRT TVs and monitors ($0.69/lb)
- Flatscreen TVs, audio equipment, small appliances, & monitors ($0.59/lb)
- Fire extinguishers ($8.00/unit)
- CDs & DVDs ($3.00/lb)
- Misc. electronics not included in free items above ($0.59/lb)

- White block foam packaging #6, rigid styrofoam
- Plate glass windows
- Big durable #2 plastics (play structures, lawn furniture, etc.)
- Bicycles
- Appliances containing freon
- Shredded paper or service to shred paper
- Single-stream recycling
- Cooking oil
- Mattresses
- Alkaline batteries

Note: This is a list of items accepted/not accepted at this event. Other items may be accepted at each facility location - see their websites for details.

