

Meet the SUPERIOR YOUTH LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

What is SYLC?

The Superior Youth Leadership Council (SYLC) is a group designed to engage and empower teens grades 8-12 in Superior, Colorado. SYLC works to plan events, activities, and community service opportunities for local youth. It meets on the first Wednesday of each month to coordinate and host events and activities for the community.

Why Join SYLC?

The council is a great opportunity to develop leadership skills, make decisions that impact their peers, and contribute positively to their community through philanthropic opportunity and civic engagement. The council's goal is to foster youth involvement, promote leadership development, and build the community of the Town of Superior.
