

Where are COVID-19 relief dollars going in Weld County?

$30 million

CARES Act Funding

24 municipalities and the county worked together on a plan to ensure COVID-19 related expenses were reimbursed - reducing financial burden on taxpayers.

$27.8 million

THROUGH DHS

Help cover costs of direct expenditures from COVID-19, including:

$540,000
Meals to older adults through Area Agency on Aging

$316,200
Weld Food Bank mobile pantry & school backpacks

$244,698
Lockdown Relief for individuals in community

$260,000
Child care provider assistance

$354,700
Envision

$55,000
Boys and Girls Clubs of Weld County

$77,875
North Range Behavioral Health

$5,000
Catholic Charities

TO MUNICIPALITIES & COUNTY

Help cover costs of direct expenditures from COVID-19, including:

Personal Protective Equipment

COVID-19 testing

Teleworking

Food programs

$10.6 million

THROUGH UPSTATE

Weld Recovery Fund aids businesses that demonstrate financial stress or disrupted operations who are trying to:

Reopen & Stay open

Modify their business operations or facilities to serve customers in a safe way

$3.6 million

Weld County Funding

Money from the county's Economic Development Fund for restaurants, gyms, bars, movie theaters, recreational facilities and live event venues.

$2 million

TO SERVICE INDUSTRY

Assist Weld County businesses that have had to close or significantly reduce services since November 1, 2020, due to state restrictions by reimbursing for:

Lost revenue

Utilities

Addition of contactless services

$10,000 per business to help cover costs

Rolling distribution of funds from December 14, 2020, through January 31, 2021

Must have 3+ employees

Apply now at www.weldrecovery.com

