Florida Small Business Emergency Bridge Loan Program

The Bridge Loan Program supports businesses impacted by Hurricane Michael by providing short-term interest-free loans to small businesses that experienced physical or economic damage during the storm. The program bridges the gap between the time a major catastrophe hits and when a business has secured longer-term recovery resources, such as payments on insurance claims or federal disaster assistance.

Applications must be completed by Dec. 7, 2018; apply at www.floridadisasterloan.org.

For more information, contact the Florida Small Business Development Center Network at 866-737-7232 or email Disaster@FloridaSBDC.org.

Farmers and ranchers in Bay, Calhoun, Franklin, Gadsden, Gulf, Holmes, Jackson, Leon, Liberty, Taylor, Wakulla, and Washington counties may be eligible.

The USDA Farm Service Agency make low-interest disaster loans to provide working capital and to repair or replace damaged property not covered by insurance. For more information and county meeting dates, log onto <https://www.fsa.usda.gov/state-offices/Florida/index>.

The U.S. Small Business Administration offers low-interest disaster loans up to $2 million to businesses of any size and private nonprofits to repair or replace damaged or destroyed real estate, machinery and equipment, inventory, and other business assets.

Economic Injury Disaster Loans from SBA may help small businesses, small agricultural cooperatives, small businesses engaged in aquaculture and nonprofits to meet working-capital needs caused by the disaster. EIDL assistance is available all the designated counties and contiguous counties regardless of the business's property damage.

Doing Business with the State of Florida and FEMA

How to do business with the State of Florida

The Department of Management Services/Florida Emergency Supplier Network \(FESN\) collects and organizes supplier information and makes it accessible to state and local purchasing professionals during emergencies.

Registered users with FloridaDisaster.biz can use the resource sharing tool, where businesses can identify their available resources (for donation or for purchase) and that information can be utilized by responders, nonprofits and other businesses throughout the state.

How to do business with FEMA

During times of disaster, many companies want to do business with FEMA or other federal agencies. If you are seeking to do business with FEMA in support of disaster response or recovery, please be aware that in accordance with the Robert T. Stafford Act, FEMA's goal is to seek local companies and businesses within the disaster area for goods and services whenever practical and feasible.

The FEMA Industry Liaison Program establishes strategic relationships with suppliers and stakeholders, and connects suppliers with program offices in support of FEMA's mission. The program ensures information about your company's products or services are routed to the appropriate program office. They can be reached at FEMA-Industry@fema.dhs.gov or 202-646-1895.

FEMA Small Business Program (SBP) office actively engages with FEMA's procurement personnel to ensure that small businesses have the maximum practicable opportunity to participate in contracts. FEMA's SBP's mission is to assist small businesses in their pursuit of federal procurements and continuous learning of small business programs to include policies and procedures that affect small business federal contracting.

Businesses should also register with GSA's Federal Business Opportunities web portal at <https://www.fbo.gov> to gain access to opportunity announcements.
