ARRESTS:

OFFENSE: Criminal Trespass to Real Property
DATE/TIME: 03/16/2023 7:00 a.m.
LOCATION: 1100 Block of S. Wolf Road
REPORT#: 23-06428
SUBJECT NAME: Hersh, Jeffrey
DATE OF BIRTH: 07/16/1971
ADDRESS: 2290 Scott St. Des Plaines, IL 60018

Des Plaines Police responded to the 1100 Block of S. Wolf Road for the report of a subject, later identified as Jeffrey Hersh, on the victim's property. Upon arrival and speaking with the victim, the officer learned that via security cameras from the morning of March 16, 2023, Hersh was seen on the property and has been previously warned from both the resident and the police to stay away. The footage shows Hersh peeking around the corner of the vinyl fence on the east side of the house before then walking onto the property in a white hooded jacket and light colored pants. The victim identified a facial image of the subject as Hersh. At that time, Hersh was unable to be located. At approximately 7:20 p.m., Des Plaines officers following up on the investigation located Hersh at his home. Hersh was advised of the reason the police were there, taken into custody, and transported to the Des Plaines Police station. Once at the station, Hersh was subsequently arrested for Criminal Trespass to Property. Hersh posted the required bond for the incident and was released after being provided his court information.

OFFENSE: Domestic Battery
DATE/TIME: 03/20/2023 11:44 p.m.
LOCATION: 1700 Block of Lunt Avenue
REPORT#: 23-06828
SUBJECT NAME: Poplawski, Marek
DATE OF BIRTH: 05/29/1951
ADDRESS: 700 French Way Mount Prospect, IL 60056

Des Plaines Police responded to the 1700 Block of Lunt Avenue for the report of a domestic dispute. Des Plaines officers spoke with the victim who stated that the subject, Marek Poplawski, whom she shares a relationship with struck and pushed her at this location following an argument. At the time of the dispatch, the victim had been transported to a separate location and was not at the address of occurrence. The officers met with the victim and observed minor injuries consistent with her account of the incident. DPPD then went to the 1700 Block of Lunt Avenue to speak with Poplawski. Once there, Poplawski admitted to being in an argument but does not know how the victim obtained any injuries. Poplawski was taken into custody and transported to the Des Plaines Police station where he was subsequently arrested for Domestic Battery. Poplawski was brought to the Cook County Courthouse in Skokie, IL for a bond hearing the following day.

OFFENSE: Possession of a Controlled Substance / Possession of Drug Paraphernalia
DATE/TIME: 03/21/2023 9:22 p.m.
LOCATION: 7000 Block of Mannheim Road, Rosemont, IL 60018
REPORT#: 23-06923
SUBJECT NAME: Straley, Melissa
DATE OF BIRTH: 05/30/1992
ADDRESS: 308 Healy Ave. Romeoville, IL 60446

Des Plaines Police were traveling north on Mannheim Road near Touhy Avenue when a vehicle was seen with only one headlight illuminated traveling south. The officer conducted a legal U-turn and pulled behind the vehicle to run the license plate registration. The result of said inquiry was that the registration was expired with the Illinois Secretary of State. At that time, the officer activated his overhead emergency lights and noticed that while the vehicle was slowing to stop, there were multiple occupants making sudden movements. The officer noted that it appeared as if the subject were reaching downward and also towards the center of the vehicle. After the vehicle stopped in the 7000 Block of Mannheim Road the officer approached the vehicle and noticed the rear passenger had a white powdery substance on his sweatshirt and the other occupants, including the subject Melissa Straley, appeared nervous and focused on the center console. The officer informed the driver the reason for the traffic stop and asked why they were in the area. All three occupants fumbled their answers and finally agreeing on the story that they were searching for the rear passengers car. The occupants gave vague answers to any follow up questions and still appeared nervous to the officer. The officer then pointed out that their answers did not make sense and that due to the rear passengers sweatshirt, the officer suspected their were potentially illegal narcotics in the vehicle. Additional officers arrived on scene to assist with all three subjects being asked to step out of the vehicle and a search of their person conducted. While searched Straley, who had been seated in the front passenger seat, she admitted to having empty “baggies of cocaine” in her purse. A further check of Straley’s purse resulted in finding several used glass pipes with parts of Brillo pads stuffed into them. Straley confiemd that the pipes were used to smoke “cocaine”. A search of the vehicle resulted in finding another glass pipe under Straley’s seat and a small ball of aluminum foil near the same seat tucked by the center console. A white powdery substance, suspected to be cocaine, was seen falling from the foil as the officer retrieved it. Straley admitted that the foil was hers and that the substance was in fact cocaine when she was then taken into custody and transported to the Des Plaines Police station along with the substance and the glass pipes. The substance was tested using a Narcotics Identification Kit and was positive for the probable presence of cocaine. Straley was subsequently arrested for the Possession of a Controlled Substance and the Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. Straley was brought to the Cook County Courthouse in Skokie, IL for a bond hearing the following day.

step out of the residence, to which he complied. After being taken into custody, Griffin was initially transported to the Des Plaines Police station before being extradited by the MPPD and subsequently arrested for said Warrants.

OFFENSE: Speeding 40 MPH Over the Posted Limit / Traffic
DATE/TIME: 03/22/2023 2:05 a.m.
LOCATION: 3000 Block of S. Des Plaines River Road
REPORT#: 23-06936
SUBJECT NAME: Somo, Somo
DATE OF BIRTH: 11/22/1967
ADDRESS: 7502 Palma Ln. Morton Grove, IL 60053

Des Plaines Police were on patrol when a gray Audi IRSS was seen traveling on Des Plaines River Road at a high rate of speed. The officer had his front mounted radar unit activated and locked the vehicle's speed at 40 MPH over the posted limit for that area. After activating his overhead emergency lights, the officer curbed the vehicle in the 3000 Block of S. Des Plaines River Road and approached the driver's side of the Audi. The officer requested the driver/subject's, Somo Somo, driver's license and proof of insurance while advising him the reason for the traffic stop. Somo was unable to provide the officer with proof of insurance and was notified that the speed to which he was observed traveling was a violation of the Illinois Vehicle Code. Somo was asked, and proceeded to comply, with exiting the vehicle where he was taken into custody and transported to the Des Plaines Police station. Once there, Somo was subsequently arrested for Speeding 40 MPH Over the Posted Limit and issued a citation for Operation of an Uninsured Motor Vehicle. After posting the required bond, Somo was released from the station and provided his court information.

OFFENSE: Obstructing Identification / Warrant x2
DATE/TIME: 03/22/2023 3:56 a.m.
LOCATION: 3000 Block of S. Des Plaines River Road
REPORT#: 23-06947 / 23-06948
SUBJECT NAME: Woods, Darryl
DATE OF BIRTH: 11/08/1968
ADDRESS: 3104 Erika Ln. Carpentersville, IL 60110

Des Plaines Police were dispatched to the Rivers Casino located in the 3000 Block of S. Des Plaines River Road for the report of an intoxicated subject on the property. When the officers arrived, they met with Casino security who advised that there was a subject who was attempting to drive away in a black Range Rover. Security escorted the officers to the location of the vehicle and spoke with the subject, Darryl Woods, who at the time, was refusing to provide all of his information. A license plate was given to the officers and after running it through the database noticed the registered owner, Darryl Woods, had two warrants in his name. The Kane County and DuPage County Sheriff's Police Departments were both contacted and confirmed the warrants were valid and extraditable when Woods was advised of the situation. Woods was then taken into custody and transported to the Des Plaines Police station where he was subsequently arrested for said Obstructing Identification and said Warrants. After posting the required bond, Woods was released from the station and provided his court information.
