informed for the reason of the traffic stop. Mehanovic was asked to step out of the vehicle, to which he complied, and was taken into custody. After being transported to the Des Plaines Police station, Mehanovic was subsequently arrested for one misdemeanor count of Domestic Battery and was later brought to a Cook County courthouse for a detention hearing.

OFFENSE: Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol / DUI with a BAC Over .08 / Traffic
DATE/TIME: 08/10/2024 4:31 a.m.
LOCATION: 2000 Block of S. Mannheim Road
REPORT#: 24-18645
SUBJECT NAME: Harayo, Romar
DATE OF BIRTH: 03/02/2000
ADDRESS: 1786 S. Cora St. Des Plaines, IL 60018

Des Plaines Police were on patrol southbound on Mannheim Road towards Touhy Avenue when a vehicle that was traveling northbound had sparks emitting from under its passenger side. The officer conducted a legal U-turn and identified the vehicle as a red Dodge Charger and noted black smoke coming from the rear. While behind the Dodge, the rear passenger tire dislodged from the rim when the officer activated his overhead emergency lights and curbed the vehicle. The officer requested that the driver, later identified as the above subject Romar Harayo, exit the vehicle to speak with him. Harayo complied and while conversing, the officer observed his eyes to be watery and that he was emitting the odor of alcohol from his breath. Harayo stated he was coming from a friend's house and did not admit to consuming alcohol when asked by the officer. Harayo was asked to perform Standardized Field Sobriety Tests, to which he agreed, and upon completion showed visible signs of impairment. Harayo was taken into custody and transported to the Des Plaines Police station where he was asked, and consented, to give a breath alcohol sample, the result of said test was nearly twice the legal limit. Harayo was subsequently arrested for one misdemeanor count each of Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol and DUI with a BAC Over .08; ticketed for Defective Brakes and the Operation of an Uninsured Motor Vehicle. Harayo was cited and released with his court information.

Weber. The officers ran Weber's information through the database when they were alerted that she had a warrant with the Cook County Sheriff's Police Department. Des Plaines Dispatch confirmed with CCSPD that the warrant was valid and active when Weber was then notified of the violation and taken into custody. After being transported to the Des Plaines Police station, Weber was subsequently arrested for one count of the Issuance of a Warrant. Weber will later be brought to a Cook County courthouse for a detention hearing.

OFFENSE: Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol / Traffic
DATE/TIME: 08/11/2024 3:05 a.m.
LOCATION: 3000 Block of S. Des Plaines River Road
REPORT#: 24-18722
SUBJECT NAME: Richardson, Lusean
DATE OF BIRTH: 06/27/1972
ADDRESS: 1820 W. Palm Dr. Mount Prospect, IL 60056

Des Plaines Police responded to a motor vehicle accident that occurred in the 3000 Block of S. Des Plaines River Road. When the officer arrived, he approached the two vehicles involved and spoke with the subject, Lusean Richardson, who denied wanting a police report and instead just wanting to exchange information with the other driver. Richardson was avoiding answering questions about the accident itself and insisted they were fine on their own. The officer then spoke with the other party who stated that they and Richardson were northbound on Des Plaines River Road when Richardson swerved from the inside lane to the outside lane and struck their driver's side. The driver asked a police report to be generated instead of exchanging information. While gathering all driver's information, the officer observed that Richardson's eyes were watery/bloodshot, he was slurring while speaking, and emitted a strong odor of alcohol. The officer suspected Richardson was intoxicated and asked him to perform Standardized Field Sobriety Tests, to which he agreed. Upon completion, Richardson showed visible signs of impairment and was taken into custody. Richardson was transported to the Des Plaines Police station where he refused all further tests and questions asked by the officer. Richardson was subsequently arrested for one misdemeanor count of Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol; ticketed for Expired Registration and Improper Lane Change. Richardson was cited and released with his court information.
