ADDRESS: 2954 W. Arthur Ave. Chicago, IL 60645

Des Plaines Police responded to Miner Street and Western Avenue after receiving multiple 9-1-1 calls regarding a single vehicle accident in that area. When the officers arrived, they located a Volkswagen Tiguan approaching the curve in the 1000 Block of Northwest Highway traveling westbound when it left its lane of travel and struck the guard rail. As officers approached the vehicle, they located the subject, Mikheil Chichua, in the driver's seat. Officers began to ask Chichua questions about the accident, but he was unable to respond accurately as he did not know where he was nor was he aware that he was involved in an accident. The Des Plaines Fire Department was called to the scene to assess Chichua and his injuries at the time. The officers suspected that Chichua was intoxicated at the time of the accident but due to suffering a minor injury they did not request that he perform any tests.

here were four subjects, two males and two females, being physically confrontational and argumentative with casino staff. Security escorted the officers to the location inside the casino where two females, later identified as Cheetara Banks and Monique Binion, were walking with an unknown male towards the cashier's cage. The officer stopped them and advised them they needed to leave the property. Binoin agreed and started to walk away yelling at officers, but Banks refused to leave. Banks was told several times by security as well as officers that she was no longer allowed on the property and needed to leave. In response, Banks became verbally aggressive and began getting closer to the officer. After repeated attempts to get Banks to leave and even allowing her to cash in her gaming chips, she still refused to comply with the officers' directions and was warned that further refusal to leave will result in her being arrested for trespassing. Banks continued to refuse and was ultimately escorted by the officers outside of the casino and placed in handcuffs.

While all of this was occurring, Binoin began approaching the area where officers were making their arrest and another officer assisted by making sure Binion did not interfere with the officers. Binion repeatedly made multiple advances towards the officers dealing with Banks and was instructed to stay back by the third officer when she then threw a water bottle at the officer, striking him in the arm. The officers then approached Binoin, took her into custody, and placed her in a patrol squad.

Both Binion and Banks were transported to the Des Plaines Police station where Banks was subsequently arrested for one misdemeanor count each of Criminal Trespass to Real Property and Disorderly Conduct. She was cited and released with her court information.

Due to the nature of the incident, the Cook County State's Attorney's Office was contacted and who approved a felony charge for Binion. Binoin was subsequently arrested for one felony count of Aggravated Battery to a Peace Officer. She was later brought to a Cook Count courthouse for a detention hearing.
