

Dementia Friendly

EVANSTON

*Bringing Dementia
Out of the Dark*

Dementia-Friendly Evanston Initiative presents:

STAYING CONNECTED: PRACTICAL STRATEGIES FOR ACTIVE LIVING WITH DEMENTIA

A free workshop for staying connected through improving communication, cognitive stimulation, and physical activity for persons with dementia and their care partners.

Offered in person (as local health guidelines permit) and virtually through Zoom.

Presentations From:

Dr. Angela Roberts

Assistant Professor of Communication Sciences and
Disorders at Northwestern University

Dr. Margaret Danilovich

Adjunct Assistant Professor of Physical Therapy and Human Movement Program at
Feinberg School of Medicine
at Northwestern University

NOVEMBER 4, 2021
1 PM - 3 PM

LEVY CENTER, 300 DODGE AVE
EVANSTON, IL 60201

REGISTRATION:

bit.ly/DementiaEvanston

SPONSORED BY

Evanston Public Library, Sounds Good Choir, Dementia-Friendly
Evanston Initiative and City of Evanston