

2024 SOLAR ECLIPSE

Creative Project Support

Scan the QR code below to share your ideas for events and activities that could benefit from micro-grant support (up to $2,000) leading up to or on the day of the eclipse, April 8. You will be notified when the official grant application opens.

The IU Center for Rural Engagement, in partnership with Regional Opportunity Initiatives and the Simons Foundation, is supporting cultural and arts events and activities related to the 2024 Solar Eclipse in rural Indiana communities (under 50,000 in population in non-metropolitan areas).

For more questions or to talk about upcoming opportunities, please contact the IU Center for Rural Engagement at:
