

The Indiana School Safety Specialist Academy presents:

“School Nurses: Well-Being During a Pandemic”

Presented by:

Robin Cogan, MEd, RN, NCSN

School nurses' well-being during the pandemic is as important as those we serve in our school communities.

Robin Cogan, also known as The Relentless School Nurse, will guide an interactive discussion that will promote a strength-based approach to well-being for school nurses.

We will look at resilience in the face of adversity and identify triumphs in the most consequential times in modern school nursing history.

A graphic featuring a quote by Shane Koyczan. The text is arranged in five horizontal bars of different colors: yellow, orange, pink, purple, and blue. The quote reads: "Remember the times you could have pressed quit - but you hit continue". Below the quote, the name "-Shane Koyczan" is written in a smaller font.

Remember the times
you could have pressed quit - but you hit continue
-Shane Koyczan
