Dear Graduate,

Congratulations on earning a Core 40 with Honors Diploma!

By receiving this diploma, you have demonstrated a commitment to completing the necessary requirements to earn this honor and attain a quality education. This achievement reflects the hard work you have invested, both inside and outside of the classroom, as well as your ability to manage the various demands on your time throughout the last four years.

The work you have completed has undoubtedly been challenging, but I want you to know this work will pay dividends. Every late-night study session and early morning review has set you up for lifelong success. The knowledge and skills you have acquired will be essential to meeting the demands of an evolving job market. I genuinely hope you will take a moment to pause and celebrate this accomplishment.

This is an exciting time in your life with limitless possibilities ahead. By completing this rigorous coursework, you have taken the reins on your future and placed yourself on a pathway to success. Whether your next step involves higher education, the workforce, the military, or another endeavor, I am confident the skills you have gained by earning your Indiana Honors Diploma have prepared you for a bright future.

I am so proud of your accomplishment and wish you all the best!

Sincerely,

Dr. Katie Jenner
