Subject: February Tuition Support Payment

The following memorandum provides an overview of the February State Tuition Support distribution. The Indiana Department of Education (Department) Office of School Finance updated Special Education Grant funding to reflect actual December 2022 special education counts. Updated State Tuition Support worksheets are currently available in the STN Finance Application Center.

The Form 54 will be available on Wednesday, February 15. Current and estimated payments reflect upward or downward adjustments in response to the recalculation of the Special Education Grant. If there was an underpayment of funds from July 2022 through January 2023, the February payment amount will increase. If an overpayment of funds occurred from July 2022 through January 2023, the February through May monthly payment amounts will decrease.
