OFFICIAL SAT PRACTICE WEBINAR WITH COLLEGE BOARD

Administrators, counselors, teachers, and school staff are invited to a live webinar on the Official SAT Practice with Khan Academy from 10 to 11 a.m. ET on Thursday, January 18. The webinar will review the new digital SAT course that provides students with results from their Bluebook practice tests and free educator content aligned to the digital SAT.

Thursday, January 18, from 10 to 11 a.m. ET

COLLEGE BOARD BIGFUTURE AND OPPORTUNITY SCHOLARSHIP WEBINAR

College Board welcomes counselors and administrators to the BigFuture and Opportunity Scholarship Webinar. BigFuture is a free, comprehensive digital resource to help students plan for life after high school. Learn about the services BigFuture provides as a career- and college-planning tool and how students can be entered into monthly scholarship drawings.

Monday, January 29, from 10 to 11 a.m. ET

SAT SCHOOL DAY 2024 IMPLEMENTATION STC WORKSHOP REFRESHER

College Board welcomes test coordinators and other assessment administrators to an SAT School Day Workshop Refresher. The live webinar will include highlights of important information from previous SAT workshops for test coordinators (i.e., policies, procedures, available resources, student registration, accommodations, digital readiness, and communication that will be distributed prior to spring testing) as well as the opportunity for questions with College Board.

Wednesday, February 28, from 10 to 11 a.m. ET

HELPING STUDENTS UNDERSTAND SAT SCORES WEBINAR

College Board welcomes school leaders and counselors to a live webinar designed to help students and schools understand and use their SAT scores. This webinar will provide an overview of the new digital SAT student score reports, which include customized career insights and resources schools can use to support their students in accessing, reviewing, and fully understanding all aspects of their score report.

Wednesday, March 27, from 10 to 11 a.m. ET

SAT SCHOOL DAY DATA TEAM WORKSHOP (NOVICE USERS)

College Board welcomes administrators, counselors, and other school officials to an introductory SAT School Day Data Team Workshop to support schools with accessing and using their spring SAT School Day data. College Board recently updated the K-12 Reporting Portal and encourages schools/corporations to attend the workshop to review the updated student, school, and corporation score reports. Schools will bring a team of educators to collaborate on reviewing their spring scores and developing a plan for using this data. These sessions are intended for school officials who have limited experience with the College Board's score reports and/or are new to using data for school improvement.
