

County/Statewide	Award Recipient	Project Description	Award Amount
Allen	Allen County Prosecuting Attorney's Office	The funding will be used for a coordinator who will serve as a liaison to local law enforcement, victim assistance, Adult Protective Services Unit 3, Amani Family Services, the YWCA Women's Shelter & Outreach Program, and any other social service agencies. They will maintain the Domestic Violence Database in order to collect and analyze data regarding incoming and closed cases, as well as enhance training programs for local law enforcement, multicultural agencies, medical personnel, and victim advocacy organizations.	$61,292
Allen	Fort Wayne Police Department	The funding will be used by the Fort Wayne Victim Assistance Advocates and the Fort Wayne Police Department Domestic Violence Unit who will work in conjunction to serve victims and address the issue of domestic violence. In the past 18 years of service, together they have aided victims and their families as well as held perpetrators accountable.	$136,407
Allen	YWCA Northeast Indiana	The funding will be used by a Bilingual (Spanish-speaking) Advocate to provide trauma-informed and culturally appropriate services to limited English proficient victims of domestic violence. Community educators will continue to travel into surrounding rural communities to provide education for youth and adult professionals who work with potential victims of domestic violence/sexual assault.	$49,704
Bartholomew	Bartholomew County Prosecutor's Office	The funding will be used for the Bartholomew County Prosecutor's Investigator/Translator Program, which provides services to victims of crime in an effort to encourage understanding and participation in the criminal justice system. The program will be provided in a linguistically and culturally competent manner.	$58,920
Boone	Boone County Prosecutor's Office	The grant money supplements the salary of a deputy prosecutor who specializes in crimes of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking.	$30,872
Brown	Brown County Prosecutor's Office	The Brown County Prosecutor's Office uses the position of Investigator to help complete investigations started by local police, that involve crimes against women. The investigator will use the skills and resources of a skilled detective, along with training provided by the local sheriff's department. The investigator will continue to be involved in the cases of crimes involving women until resolved.	$30,000
Cass	Cass County Prosecutor's Office	The funding will be used to prevent domestic violence in Cass County, primarily through the use of criminal prosecution through inter-agency, cooperation, victim assistance, incarceration and rehabilitation of offenders with the cooperation of the community.	$13,693

Clark	Clark County Sheriff's Office	The funding will be used to provide citizens of Clark County with a dedicated Detective and Victims Advocate who will provide resources to victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, and stalking.	$41,219
Clark	Clark County Prosecutor's Office	The criminal justice system is a deterrent to reduce subsequent violence against women. Prosecutors work diligently to ensure that victims are not confused or frustrated by the criminal justice process by using a strategy that improves victim participation, so they understand their rights as victims. Keeping victims informed and updated about the case not only gives them a sense of control but also acknowledges the victim as the aggrieved party.	$24,338
Clinton	Clinton County Prosecutor's Office	The Clinton County Prosecutor's Office intends to continue our current victim assistance program by guiding victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking through the criminal justice system and providing them with the necessary referrals and support systems they need to recover from the crime committed against them.	$17,010
Delaware	Muncie Police Department	The funding will be used to train law enforcement officers, judges, other court personnel, and prosecutors to more effectively identify and respond to sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Our Senior Investigator will continue to investigate all cases of violent crimes against women for swift prosecution, and our domestic violence coordinator will continue training and assisting victims over this one-year project.	$29,502
Delaware	A Better Way Services, Inc.	With this funding, A Better Way will provide advocacy, follow-up, support groups, shelter, transportation, and other services for survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault.	$15,385
Delaware	Delaware County Prosecuting Attorney	The funding will be used to continue to serve the victims of our community with the best resources we have available, while striving to empower our victims to break the cycle of domestic violence.	$153,001
Elkhart	Elkhart County Prosecutor's Office	The funding will be used by the Domestic Violence Deputy Prosecuting Attorney to efficiently and effectively prosecute domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking cases in Elkhart County.	$29,122

Fayette	Fayette County Prosecutor's Office	STOP funded Fayette County Domestic Violence Program is dedicated to ensuring advocacy for victims of domestic violence, stalking, and sexual assault while working to eradicate those offenses in the community. The Domestic Violence Deputy will fulfill the program's mission to effectively prosecute crimes of domestic violence with emphasis on holding defendants accountable and providing victims with opportunity for change.	$16,999
Grant	Grant County Prosecutor's Office	The funding will be used to hold those who commit domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking accountable for their crimes. Specifically, our goal is a minimum success rate of 90 in prosecuting these cases. Our special prosecution unit includes two deputy prosecutors, a victim advocate, and a prosecutor investigator. We seek funding support for one deputy prosecutor and our grant manager who also serves as the Prosecutor Investigator.	$36,032
Hancock	Hancock County Prosecutor's Office	The Crimes Against Women program has three levels. The first level is the law enforcement level that includes the collection of evidence, preparation of information needed for screening and filing cases involving crimes against women. The second level of service provided by the Crimes Against Women Program is the actual prosecution of the crimes. The third level is working with community partners to raise awareness of domestic violence and sexual assault victims' rights and services within the community – deleting the stigma attached that victims who choose to report often face and encouraging victims to report crimes with the support of their community.	$66,498
Hendricks	Hendricks County Prosecutor's Office	With this funding, the Special Prosecutor for "Crimes Against Women" will assist Hendricks County citizens who are victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking throughout the criminal justice process from the very beginning of the case. The Special Prosecutor will work closely with the Victim Assistance Coordinator and Victim Assistance in keeping the victims informed and lessening the severity of the impact of violence and to be a voice for the victims.	$54,750
Howard	Howard County Prosecutor's Office	The funding will be used for our part-time Deputy Prosecutor who is dedicated to handling the domestic violence cases and working with the victims of said cases. The office works with the courts and other law enforcement agencies in order to change the perception of domestic violence.	$47,501

Johnson	Johnson County Prosecutor's Office	The Johnson County Prosecutor's Office is a governmental agency with an overall function of holding criminal offenders accountable for their crimes. The Johnson County Intervention Program works within the JCPO, specifically, to offer services to victims of domestic crimes while holding their offenders accountable.	$47,052
Lake	Hobart Police Department	The System to End Repeated Violence (SERV) Team is a specialized unit within the Hobart Police Department that focuses on addressing the needs of victims of crimes, specifically to domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking-related calls. The goal of this program is to assist the Hobart Police Department to continue to staff a domestic violence, stalking, and sexual assault unit, coined the System to End Repeated Violence (SERV) Team.	$76,872
Lake	Fair Haven, Inc.	The funding will be used to maintain the quality comprehensive core services for victims/survivors of sexual violence, dating violence, stalking and human trafficking; continue to develop, enhance, implement and maintain best practices and a coordinated community response through the Lake County Sexual Assault Response Team by reviewing and strengthening policies protocols and best practices; and develop, enhance and strengthen prevention and education programs to address sexual assault, dating violence, stalking and human trafficking, focusing specifically on Lake County's growing Spanish-speaking communities.	$69,520
Lake	Lake County Prosecutor	Under the 2021-2022 expanded Victim Engagement Services Advocacy (VESA) program, we will focus on investigating and prosecuting backlogged rape kit cases, conducting additional training for law enforcement, advocates, sexual assault nurse examiners, and other involved community members. The program also intends to increase victim engagement while strengthening the prosecution of STOP cases by utilizing evidence-based best practices and vertical prosecution.	$98,852
LaPorte	Stepping Stone Shelter for Women, Inc.	Stepping Stone is a dual services agency which began expanding programming/development to serve the victims of human trafficking. In addition, the agency also began and will continue expanding programming to better understand and serve the LGBTQ community by developing/adopting specific outreach and education regarding gender violence, intimate partner violence and human trafficking specific to this population and to educate the cisgender community in effort to empower tolerance and more effective communication.	$11,797
Lawrence	Lawrence County Probation	The funding will be used to provide domestic violence victims counseling services that include education, safety planning and referrals to additional services at no cost to victims.	$5,000

Lawrence	Lawrence County Prosecutor's Office	The funding will be used to reduce violent crime against women and promote victim safety, increase the response to victims of human trafficking, increase victim access to substance abuse services and increase efforts to combat stalking by having a Dedicated Deputy Prosecutor whose functions will include vertical prosecution.	$55,898
Madison	Madison County Prosecutor's Office	The chief deputy prosecutor and director of victim services in the Madison County Prosecutor's Office are partnering in efforts to implement both a Domestic Violence (DV) and Sexual Assault (SA) Unit to provide specialized services to survivors, while incorporating updated best practices, policies, procedures, and protocols specific to crimes against women. The intent is to hire both a domestic violence deputy prosecuting attorney and a sexual assault prosecuting attorney to ensure that each DV/stalking and SA case is handled by an individual that is trained and educated in best practices and specific needs of DV/stalking or SA survivors.	$72,293
Marion	Marion County Prosecutor's Office	The funding will be used to address juvenile dating/intimate partner violence (D/IPV) and non-stranger sexual assault through four primary program activities: (1) prosecution of juvenile offenders; (2) education of law enforcement officers about recognition and effective intervention of D/IPV and sexual assault cases; (3) education of school aged youth/community members about D/IPV and sexual assault; and (4) referral of juvenile justice system victims, their children, and offenders to appropriate social service support.	$68,041
Marion	Marion County Sheriff's Department	The funding will be used to support the Behavioral Management Sexual Assault Division, which provides services to incarcerated survivors of sexual assault and human trafficking. The program provides support groups, trauma specific programming and reentry support.	$45,053
Monroe	Monroe County Prosecutor's Office	This project will continue to build on the successes of the Monroe County Prosecutor's Office's Special Victims Unit (SVU). The SVU was developed in July 2019 to be comprised of two deputy prosecuting attorneys, one to handle all and only sex crimes cases and another to handle all and only domestic violence cases.	$100,643

Morgan	Morgan County Prosecutor's Office	This funding will be used to create FAQs to be distributed to victims to answer questions they face when trying to make the final break from their abusers. It would also build on the current grant focused on strangulation by implementing policies with EMS, police, and, hopefully, dispatch regarding when emergency medical services should respond and when a victim should be transported. Additionally, policies that mandate advising victims of the danger they face will be phased in. Last, this program will train law enforcement on lethality assessment protocols.	$20,000
Noble	Noble County Prosecutor's Office	The funding will be used to assist victims of domestic violence and sexual assault navigate the court system and provide them with a referral system and support to overcome the cycle of domestic violence.	$26,197
Owen	Owen County Prosecutor's Office	The funding will be used to review the domestic violence protocol implemented in 2016 for local law enforcement agencies, recommend and adopt any additions and changes as necessary, and provide training for law enforcement officers to respond to incidents of domestic violence in Owen County.	$15,000
Porter	Porter County Prosecutor's Office	The project provides a specialized domestic violence prosecutor that collaborates with law enforcement to promote consistent and effective responses to crimes of domestic violence. There is a focus on identifying and responding to victims' needs, while holding defendants accountable through evidence-based prosecutions.	$50,545
Putnam	Putnam County Prosecutor's Office	The Putnam County Prosecutor's Office STOP Project will coordinate the development, training, and implementation of more effective police, court, and prosecution policies, protocols, orders and services devoted to creating a comprehensive, community response system to domestic and family violence, including sexual assault and stalking	$20,028
Ripley	Ripley County Prosecutor's Office	The purpose of this project is to continue funding the deputy prosecutor's position within the Ripley County Prosecutor's Office. This prosecutor will prosecute cases related to violent crimes against women 75 percent of the time. The remaining 25 percent will be devoted to prosecuting other cases in Ripley County.	$85,019
Rush	Rush County Prosecutor's Office	The funding of this project continues to allow our county to have a dedicated domestic violence prosecutor. This position is exclusively dedicated to the prosecution of crimes against women, including domestic violence, stalking, and sexual assault cases. This prosecutor provides enhanced victim services and acts as a liaison between law enforcement and victim assistance agencies.	$53,571

Scott	Scott County Sheriff's Department	The STOP Grant funded detective will employ lethality screens with victims who consent, referring victims to a victim advocate, the prosecutor's office, a SANE examination when applicable, Hoosier Hills PACT, and to other available resources while ensuring the victim's rights have been upheld. The detective will promote and educate the community and victims alike regarding domestic violence and sexual assault crimes and the subsequent reporting of these crimes.	$74,783
Scott	Scott County Prosecutor's Office	This project addresses domestic violence in Scott County. Funds will be used to employ a victim advocate and domestic violence prosecutor. The focus of these positions will be to offer effective and consistent services to victims and the prosecution of cases of domestic violence, stalking, and sexual assault	$41,711
Shelby	Shelby County Prosecutor's Office	The funding will be used for a specialized domestic and sexual violence Deputy Prosecuting Attorney who would be dedicated to the prosecution of crimes involving domestic and sexual violence. The Shelby County Prosecutor's Office STOP Program prosecutes offenders, provides assistance to victims, and assists law enforcement with criminal investigations.	$101,993
St. Joseph	St. Joseph County Prosecutor's Office	The funding will be used to support the Special Victims Unit (SVU), which is a multi-jurisdictional, multi-disciplinary collaboration of law enforcement officers, prosecution staff, and governmental victim advocates that investigates and prosecutes crimes of domestic violence and sexual assault, and advocates for victims of these crimes.	$185,174
Steuben	Steuben County Prosecuting Attorney	The funding will be used to support the Special Prosecution Effort program, which provides aggressive and focused prosecution of domestic violence and other violent crimes in which women are victims.	$26,250
Tippecanoe	YWCA Greater Lafayette	YWCA Greater Lafayette's Domestic Violence Intervention and Prevention Program (DVIPP) Advocacy efforts will be provided through the continued funding of our Hispanic Advocate, who provides these services to Spanish-speaking and rural communities.	$28,758
Vanderburgh	Vanderburgh County Prosecutor's Office	The STOP Grant will be used to fund the Domestic Violence Task Force, which will continue to provide necessary services available to victims, while maintaining relationships with said service providers to gather up-to-date information on other needs that may not be addressed at this time. The Domestic Violence Task Force will also provide training to deputy prosecutors and law enforcement to further the goal of prosecution, while also reducing the rate of recidivism	$68,563

Vanderburgh	Vanderburgh County Sheriff's Office	The Domestic Violence Case Coordinator is a sworn merit deputy assigned to the investigations unit that provides specific, individualized services to victims of domestic, family, and sexual violence. The coordinator also works in conjunction with all victim advocate agencies located within Vanderburgh County for prevention, education and awareness campaigns related to domestic and sexual violence, as well as the liaison between local advocate agencies and the criminal justice system.	$70,547
Vanderburgh	Albion Fellows Bacon Center, Inc.	The funding will be used to provide core and comprehensive intervention and advocacy services to sexual and domestic violence victims, and to increase the agency's capacity to serve victims and families.	$34,001
Vermillion	Vermillion County Prosecutor's Office	The funding will be used by a part-time investigator who will dedicate time to sexual assault and domestic violence crimes. The investigator is also our liaison between the hospital and state labs for all evidence collection in these cases. New this year is a community outreach portion. This grant covers a one-year blitz campaign of dating violence, which will bring awareness and education to the rural and unserved population of Vermillion County in the area of dating violence.	$70,807
Wayne	Genesis of Richmond, Inc.	The Latinx Outreach Program is designed to meet the unique needs of Latinx survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault by increasing their access to safety planning, education, personal advocacy, crisis response, case management, and immigration assistance. The program provides culturally competent services addressing the needs of this population and will work with Latinx survivors by providing advocacy, assistance with the immigration process, case management and counseling.	$88,833

Statewide	Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence	Each of our proposed initiatives contributes to the goal of supporting local communities in providing a well-informed, compassionate, and connected systems-level response to domestic violence. Improving survivors' experiences at every level of the systems response, from initial 911 dispatch call through prosecution, are all strategies to improve the domestic violence service response, and to reduce domestic violence homicides in Indiana.	$85,196
Statewide	Indiana Coalition to End Sexual Assault	ICESAHT proposes to develop and implement the Human Trafficking Protocols and Criminalization Alternative Project to increase coordinated response to victims of human trafficking throughout Indiana by taking a multi-disciplinary team approach. The project will focus on two initiatives. In partnership with the Department of Child Services (DCS), Child Advocacy Centers (CACs), Sexual Assault Response Teams (SARTs), the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) and IPATH, ICESAHT will coordinate the creation, introduction, and implementation of two separate protocols in response to human trafficking – one for adult victims and one for youth victims.	$124,725
Statewide	Latino Coalition Against Domestic & Sexual Violence, Inc.	Encouraging Non-Violence through Legal Assistance & Community Education (ENLACE) was created to help Latino survivors navigate the legal system and learn about their options under the law. The ENLACE program also trains legal service providers in the best practices and innovations, in the field of immigration and domestic and sexual violence, with an emphasis on communication skills between law enforcement and survivors.	$62,471
Statewide	Supreme Court	The Family Violence Resource Attorney serves as a single point of contact for the judicial branch of Indiana on best practices and training related to intimate partner violence, civil protection orders, criminal domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, dating violence, stalking and human trafficking.	$112,500
Statewide	Neighborhood Christian Legal Clinic	The Neighborhood Christian Legal Clinic's (the Clinic's) Survivor Justice Program serves victims of violent crime by providing legal assistance for those who have experienced violent crime like dating violence, sexual assault, domestic violence, and stalking. This is done through filing protective orders, immigration petitions, and other survivor legal remedies to help these survivors feel safe. By funding the salary of a full-time attorney, the STOP grant will help 75 victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking receive the legal assistance they need to successfully start new lives in which they are safe and free from abuse.	$58,305