MICHIGAN STATE POLICE SUBMIT INVESTIGATION INTO SHOOTING OF PATRICK LYOYA TO KENT COUNTY PROSECUTOR

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 28, 2022

GRAND RAPIDS, MI. Detectives with the Michigan State Police Sixth District Special Investigations Section today submitted their investigative report of the shooting of Patrick Lyoya to the Kent County Prosecutor's Office.

The investigative report and supporting documentation were provided to Kent County Prosecutor, Chris Becker, this afternoon. The investigation remains in on-going status as detectives await the return of forensic reports from the manufacturer of the body camera and Taser. Those reports will be forwarded to the Prosecutor once received.

Detectives will conduct any additional investigation requested by the prosecutor or if new information is generated.
