KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Dr. Barbara M. Burns

Dr. Barbara M. Burns is a developmental psychologist and Professor of Liberal Studies (Pre-Teaching and Child Studies) at Santa Clara University in Santa Clara, California. Burns's career path and research interests reflect her passion to promote family resilience and increase school readiness especially in children from families experiencing poverty and chronic stress. In addition to academic positions, Burns has been a consultant for the Early Intervention Program in the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene and the Center for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta, GA. While a professor at the University of Louisville (1988-2012), she was an active member of the Head Start/Early Head Start Policy Council and provided workshops and training on child development for teachers and staff at Jefferson County Public Schools.
