38th Annual Black Achievers Celebration

Honoring the 2016-2017 BLACK ACHIEVERS

Galt House Hotel & Suites - 140 N. Fourth Street

Saturday, February 25th at 5:30 pm

The Chestnut Street Family YMCA will hold its 38th Annual Black Achievers Awards Celebration on Saturday, February 25th at the Galt House Hotel, Archibald Cochran Ballroom, at 5:30pm. The awards banquet honors local high school students with over $1 million in scholarships. Local adult achievers, who are selected by their corporations or civic groups, are honored as well.

Also, recognized during the banquet will be the Youth Achiever of the Year, Jayla Langford; Adult Achiever of the Year, Michael Young and Distinguished Achiever, Keith Hamilton, LLB Manufacturing. The Keynote Speaker will be Nate Howard, founder of Movement BE, a non-profit organization that creates curriculum to help young people discover their personal story through poetry.

The program, modeled after a similar program in Harlem, was started in 1980 as a vehicle to mentor African-American youth in Louisville. It is supported with funding by local corporations, civic groups and individuals. Student participants, in grades 8-12, explore various career opportunities, earn scholarships, tour industries and colleges and participate in work-study programs.

Tickets for the banquet are $85 per person or $680 for a table of eight. For ticket information contact the Street Family YMCA at (502) 587-2378. All Celebration proceeds benefits the Achievers Program.

February Methods Training: Youth Voice

Thursday, February 23rd from 12:30 pm to 3:00 pm

Metro United Way - 2nd Floor Community Room - 334 E. Broadway

What is the best way to help young people make good decisions now and as they grow older? Is it by restricting their good choices and running your youth program like a drill sergeant? No!! Youth learn how to make good choices by making good choices, not following directions. The Youth Voice method will teach participants how to maintain a delicate balance between helping youth feel power and control, while still providing youth with safety, structure and support.

RSVP is required at oydtrainings@louisvilleky.gov

Louisville Metro Financial Incentives and Loan Programs

As you start and grow your business, the Louisville Forward Team can assist you with applicable public incentives and navigating the process of opening your doors. Louisville Metro has local incentives, including low interest loans, which assist with start-up capital, working capital and capital investments to commercial and public properties, as well as tax abatement programs, to save you money as you grow your business.

Manufacturing Tax Moratorium - www.louisvilleky.gov/government/louisville-forward/redevelopment-incentives - This program allows companies tax relief for locating or expanding a manufacturing facility in Louisville Metro. The Manufacturing Tax Moratorium allows property taxes to be abated for five years for: A new manufacturing company locating in, or moving into, Louisville Metro; or the increased value of a building/equipment for an existing manufacturing company that is expanding its operations for a new product line in Louisville Metro.

Property Assessment Moratorium - www.louisvilleky.gov/government/construction-review/tax-moratorium - This program allows the waiver of the local incremental tax value for added improvements from the assessment of a structure for five years. The following properties are eligible: Structures older than 25 years if improvements are at least 25% of the property's value; Structures in a qualifying target area (a census tract where at least 70% of residents are below 80% of the median income for Jefferson County) are eligible if improvements are at least 10% of the property's value; or The qualifying property will, at the conclusion of the improvement plan, be LEED-certified. -

Microbusiness Development Program - www.louisvilleky.gov/communityservices This loan program helps low and moderate income business owners gain access to capital to help start or grow their business. The micro-business program is funded through a federal Community Development Block Grant, and business owners must meet income and funding eligibility. A microbusiness employs five or fewer people, including the owner. The loan program also includes training and technical assistance.

METCO - The Metropolitan Business Development Corporation governs metro government's small business loans, and provides financial assistance through commercial loans for new and expanding businesses, including façade, accessibility and gap financing loans. These loans are evaluated on project cost and fund availability, with a variety of interest rates, depending on the loan program. Pre-application is available online.

West Louisville Small Business Initiative

To generate more job and wealth creation opportunities in the nine neighborhoods of west Louisville, Louisville Forward's West Louisville Small Business Initiative provides new, innovative services and support for enterprises and small businesses which are located in west Louisville. Stop by The Nia Center for more info and assistance.

Business Services

- Mentoring: Louisville Forward and Louisville Independent Business Alliance (LIBA) are partnering to pair experienced entrepreneurs and other professionals with west Louisville small business experience to provide counseling on business ownership. These mentors will provide information about business start-up issues, ongoing operations and scalability.
- Training Opportunities - Louisville Metro Department of Community Services, in partnership with Louisville Forward, offers Exploring Entrepreneurship, a one-hour workshop introducing self-employment, and Power Up, a seven-week class about starting a business and writing a business plan.
- Financial Literacy Open House - Louisville Forward and the Department of Community Services host an Open House twice annually with other financial resource and capital access providers who offer lending programs to small business owners.
- Ongoing Support - Small businesses will become part of a new customer management system that connects them to other small business service providers, such as Small Business Development Center and Small Business Administration, to keep in touch, and to follow up with the business owner for next steps.

Financial Assistance -

- Business Accelerator Loan Program - New loan program, up to $50,000, five-year term, with no collateral requirements. This loan program is available for small business owners in the night neighborhoods of west Louisville (Algonquin, California, Chickasaw, Park DuValle, Park Hill, Parkland, Portland, Russell, Shawnee).
 - Five year repayment terms. Borrower may request up to one year of interest-only payments during the first year of the life of the loan
 - Repayment forgiveness - a business in good standing is eligible for forgiveness of the last three payments of its loan. If principle payments have been made during the life of the loan, or payoff was made early, the benefit will be equal to three regular payments (up to $2,000).
 - Interest rate is 12%, or 7% with incentives
 - Funds can be used only to start or expand a business.
 - Loan recipients must meet with resource partner during first year of operation.
- To qualify: applicants should be prepared to submit a business plan, loan application or personal finance statement that supports the loan application. The loan application will consider applicants previous two years of tax income statements. The applicant will need to supply a letter from banking institution refusing a loan and applications must be approved by the METCO Board.

Workforce Development

- Training Programs - Louisville Forward connects small business owners with training programs that meet their needs, specifically for food and retail services. Training can include soft skills and job specific skills.
