New Directions Housing Corporation

What is Repair Affair?

New Directions Housing Corporation (NDHC) is committed to Making Community Happen! Their core mission is to ensure that prosperity and positivity take root within our community. New Directions has found that one of the most impactful ways to do so is through Repair Affair.

Repair Affair began in 1993, and it repairs homes, helps homeowners, and preserves neighborhoods. Each year 1,600 volunteers from across Kentuckiana provide assistance to over 150 low-income elderly and/or disabled homeowners in depressed neighborhoods. The average annual income for Repair Affair homeowners is less than $13,500, and they struggle to maintain the home they love. Volunteers provide feelings of hope and security to homeowners, and repairs range from yard work, to paint, to the installation of wheelchair ramps.

In 2016, NDHC celebrated its 3,000th home, 30,000th Repair Affair volunteer, and 300,000 volunteer hours. When you volunteer for Repair Affair, you are not only helping a neighbor who needs you, you are making a real and immediate impact in your community. Volunteering for Repair Affair is easy! Every volunteer is welcome and every skill level is needed! Volunteers can work individually or in teams, and can choose to work on event days or pick their own date.

2017 Repair Affair Event Dates:

Saturday, June 3rd in Southern Indiana Repair Affair
Saturday, June 10th is Jefferson County Repair Affair

Please call Jacie Morgan at (502) 719-7153 or send an email to jaciem@ndhc.org to volunteer today!

For more information on NDHC or for sponsorship opportunities, contact Ashley Cassetty, Director of Community and Donor Engagement at (502) 719-7169 or AshleyC@ndhc.org.

Metro Parks and Recreation seeking lifeguards for outdoor pools

Louisville Metro Parks and Recreation is seeking to fill open lifeguard positions at its four outdoor pools; Norton, Algonquin, Sun Valley and at Nelson Hornbeck Park in Fairdale. Fresh Stop Markets

Please Clip & Save!

Fresh Stop Markets are bi-weekly fresh food markets that “pop up” at local churches, community centers and housing authorities in fresh food insecure neighborhoods. Community members purchase shares of 10-12 varieties of seasonal produce in advance so that farmers don’t face the same degree of risk as they would with a standard farmers’ market. Call 502-509-6770 for more information or visit www.newroots.org.

Cultural Pass, Summer Reading and other summer learning opportunities for youth, teenagers

There are plenty of learning opportunities for Louisville students of all ages over the summer months designed to keep kids engaged and prevent summer learning loss, including the Louisville Free Public Library's Summer Reading program, and the 2017 Cultural Pass — presented by Churchill Downs in partnership with the Mayor's Office, the library, the Arts and Culture Alliance and the Fund for the Arts.

The Mayor announced, the Main Library will host the Super Summer Reading Kickoff and Cultural Pass Showcase on Saturday, June 3, from 10 a.m. – 1 p.m. This free, family-friendly event will offer a plethora of activities, performances, and crafts featuring more than two dozen members of the Arts and Culture Alliance. Participating groups will include the Louisville Zoo, Kentucky Science Center, Frazier History Museum, Kentucky Shakespeare, and more. For more information, please visit LFPL.org/Kids or call (502) 574-1620. The Cultural Pass supports and encourages lifelong learning by providing free access to 38 of Greater Louisville's arts and cultural institutions for children and young adults to age 21. The Pass is valid from June 3 to Aug. 12 for one-time general admission at each of the participating institutions. The 2017 Cultural Pass and Summer Reading materials are available now at any Louisville Free Public Library branch and any Metro Louisville Community Center. Pass holders can register and track the progress of their Cultural Pass online at www.lfpl.org/culturalpass and are encouraged to visit as many venues as they are able during the summer. Children with 5 or more documented visits receive a Cultural Pass giveaway prize and will be entered into a drawing to win additional prizes, including a free stay at 21C Museum Hotel, tickets to area performances like The Christmas Carol at Actors Theatre or Louisville Ballet's Nutcracker, family memberships to Bernheim Forest, the Frazier History Museum, Gheens Science Hall and Planetarium, and more.

To learn more about the Cultural Pass, please visit www.fundforthearts.org/2017culturalpass.

Summer Reading

Presented by the Library Foundation, the Library's annual Summer Reading Program is a free 10-week program that encourages kids and teens to read for fun over the summer by offering prizes and incentives. Every child—from infant through 12th grade—who completes the program will receive a backpack or aluminum water bottle, along with passes to local attractions like the Kentucky Science Center, Squire Boone Caverns, a Bats baseball game, the Frazier History Museum, and more. For more information, or to pre-register for Summer Reading, visit LFPL.org/SummerReading, or call (502) 574-1620.

Other Summer Programs

The Library's Summer Reading Program and the annual Cultural Pass presented by Churchill Downs complement hundreds of camps and enrichment activities organized by nonprofit organizations, Jefferson County Public Schools (JCPS), local colleges and universities, museums, churches, and arts organizations.

To help families sort through the many summer offerings, the Mayor reminds the community that a searchable database of quality Out of School Time (OST) programs is available through 2-1-1.

Thanks to the BLOCS community partnership, families can access this resource year-round by visiting www.louisvilleblocs.org and clicking on the 2-1-1 link. The list is also available by dialing Metro United Way's 211 call-in line, or accessing the 211 app. BLOCS was established in 2011 by Louisville Metro Government, JCPS, Metro United Way and the Louisville Alliance for Youth, in an effort to bridge in-school and out-of-school time, while demonstrating OST programming is a fundamental support in improving educational outcomes.

Cultural Pass, Summer Reading and other summer learning opportunities for youth, teenagers - continued

Summer Program Highlights

Jefferson County Public Schools: JCPS is offering camps this summer to assist English as a Second Language students; students who may need a summer learning boost; and students who need extended learning to help halt summer learning slide.

Louisville Zoo: The Louisville Zoo is a living classroom with something to learn all year long. When kids are out of school, it's the perfect place to keep minds active and engaged with amazing animal species from around the globe or one of the Zoo's many summer camps. Weekly camps are available for ages from pre-K to 8th grade. All Zoo camps include Zoo walks, large animal presentations, attraction rides, and up-close encounters with live animal ambassadors. Events are happening all summer, from the Friday Night Movie Series to the ever-popular Storybook Character Day. All events and camp listings can be found at louisvillezoo.org.

Metro Parks & Recreation: Five community centers -- Beechmont, Cyril Allgeier, Douglass, Southwick and Sun Valley – will have summer camps with structured programming, games, field trips and other activities. Fees range from $65 to $95.

Other centers will be offering open programming, meaning kids can shoot hoops, use the public Wi-Fi or computer lab, or maybe just relax and read a book.

The Reds' Rookie Success League is back this year. For more than a decade, this successful partnership with the Cincinnati Reds has introduces kids to the game of baseball with a focus on character development. The program will be offered at Petersburg Park and Wyandotte Park. Call Metro Parks athletics at 574-4515 for more information.

Also, from June 5-July 28, the Metro Parks and Recreation Mobile Playground will be visiting six local parks during the week: Boone Square, Elliott Square, Westonia, William Harrison, Norfolk Acres and Huston Quin. The big red converted fire truck is staffed by Metro Parks who bring music, sports, crafts and games. For more information, visit www.bestparksever.com.

Meanwhile, Metro Parks is looking to employ teens as lifeguards, and is offering training courses, including one that starts today. Call the Mary T. Meagher Aquatic Center at 897-9949. Metro Parks' four outdoor pools – at Camp Taylor, Nelson Hornbeck (Fairdale), Algonquin and Sun Valley parks – open Memorial Day weekend. Metro Parks also offers 30 spray-grounds and spray-pads at parks throughout the community.

Office for Safe and Healthy Neighborhoods: The office is sponsoring a number of activities to keep teens engaged this summer, including family game nights and chess clubs at the California Community Center; One Love Louisville Ambassador Institutes; community gardening; and Mayor-Youth Chats.
