Center For Neighborhoods is happy to announce the Neighborhood Institute Fall 2017!

Center For Neighborhoods - 507 South Third Street

August 24th - November 9th, 2017

Every Thursday, 6:00 - 8:30 PM

Eleven weekly class sessions followed by a graduation celebration. Dinner provided!

The Neighborhood Institute Fall 2017 is open to all neighborhoods, Metro Council Districts and the whole community. There is no charge to attend, but space is limited, and applications will be accepted through Friday, August 11th. The Neighborhood Institute is a neighborhood leadership-education program established in 1987 by the Center For Neighborhoods, a non-profit civic organization. The Neighborhood Institute equips neighborhood leaders with the resources necessary to effect positive change by acting through and with their neighborhood groups.

Each semester of Neighborhood Institute begins by identifying and assessing what class members view as being their most pressing issues.

Topics often requested include:

- Getting Your Message Out
- Increasing Neighborhood Participation
- Conflict Resolution
- Working with Public Officials
- Consensus Building
- Accessing Resources
- Working with Local Government Agencies
- Organization Building
- Strategic Planning
- Planning, Zoning and Land Use Issues
- Code Enforcement
- Neighborhood Quality of Life
- Block Watch & Public Safety

Part of the Neighborhood Institute curriculum includes a self-directed project in the community. Through the class projects, people become engaged in the community as they branch out and apply the information and knowledge from the class to real life situations.

To apply for the 12-week program, contact John Hawkins at 502-589-0343 or johnh@centerforneighborhoods.org.

You can also apply online at www.centerforneighborhoods.org

Fresh Stop Markets

Please Clip & Save!

Fresh Stop Markets are bi-weekly fresh food markets that “pop up” at local churches, community centers and housing authorities in fresh food insecure neighborhoods. Community members purchase shares of 10-12 varieties of seasonal produce in advance so that farmers don’t face the same degree of risk as they would with a standard farmers’ market. Call 502-509-6770 for more information or visit www.newroots.org.
