The Kentucky Center for African American Heritage Presents: James Pate's KKK Series Kin Killin' Kin

September 14 - November 12, 2018
1701 W. Muhammad Ali Blvd.

The community is invited to attend the opening reception and gallery talk by the artist James Pate on Friday, September 21, 2018, 6:00 - 9:00 pm. Please also attend and to spread the word about the Youth Voices Against Violence Forum held at Kentucky Center for African American Heritage on Saturday, November 3, 1:00 - 3:00 pm. This panel of youth will examine the themes of gun violence within the context of public health, bystander action, healing through arts, and mobilizing for change through community dialogues. The exhibition Kin Killin' Kin is a striking visual experience exploring youth violence communities. Artist James Pate uses charcoal to create compelling visual scenes combining the iconography of the Ku Klux Klan, the Civil Rights Movement, and all too familiar images of violence. Pate's artwork places the viewer inside the acts of violence and the conversation, demanding their attention and reflection on the challenges, causes, and insidious nature of violence. This exhibit is appropriate for ages 13 and up.

Louisville Sets Bold Goal to Prevent Suicide September 9-15

Be a part of a FREE community wide training event

If someone close to you were very depressed, or having suicidal thoughts -- would you recognize it, or know what to do or say? The rise in suicide is an alarming public health issue. It is also an issue we each can take action to address.

There are more than 80 free trainings on a proven suicide prevention technique being offered around our city the week of September 9 - 15, National Suicide Prevention Week. Anyone 18 or older can take the training. You need no health, healthcare, mental health or counseling knowledge to participate. The training, called Question, Persuade, Refer (QPR), helps participants learn the myths about suicide as well as warning signs and includes how to give someone hope and help. Anyone who is interested can visit QPRLOU.com to find and register for classes being offered all over the city.

The Big Table: The World's Largest Potluck Sunday, September 16 from 5:00pm - 7:00pm Iroquois Park

Help us break a world record! You're invited to join 3,500 of your closest friends for The Big Table: World's Largest Potluck event at Iroquois Park on Sunday, September 16 from 5pm - 7pm. At the event, people will be organized into tables of 8, some of whom will be strangers. Volunteers will help facilitate the evening's conversation. We'll share stories about the food we bring, about meaningful tables, about our lives, about ourselves. There will be no central stage or entertainment schedule. The only goal will be to engage with each other, and leave as friends rather than strangers. Maybe we'll even break a record! We are hoping for at least 3,500 attendees, which would put Louisville on the map for the World's Largest Potluck. Each participant must bring a dish to share that will feed up to 6 people, along with a recipe cards. Plates, napkins and utensils will be provided, but please bring serving utensils and a beverage. No alcohol or glass bottle are permitted. Sign up to attend the event at this link.

Portland Historical Highway Marker Unveiling

Saturday, September 29 at 11:00am
15th Street & Portland Avenue

Louisville to Portland Turnpike

By the late eighteenth century, large boats carried people and products to villages dotting the banks of the Ohio River. Yet the boats had to halt at the 26' drop at the Falls of the Ohio where Louisville is today. Draymen portaged freight to the bottom of the Falls where Portland emerged to service traffic.

Horse drawn wagons slogged along dirt paths until a plank toll road connected the cities. The 3 mile long Turnpike opened 1818 and greatly reduced the time it took to make the trip. After the Portland Canal opened in 1830, use of the Turnpike declined and the route eventually became Portland Avenue.

2018 Canoemobile Voyages Returns to Shawnee Park

Canoemobile is coming to Louisville once again! Join Louisville Parks and Recreation, Jefferson Memorial Forest, and our partners for a free canoe trip on the Ohio River. Canoes will take off from both Riverview and Shawnee parks. These trips will be conducted in safe and stable Voyageur canoes, which hold 9 to 15 participants. Staff and all safety equipment will be provided. Wear comfortable clothing that can get wet - no flip flops. The event is open to everyone 3 and older. Participants under 18 must have their parent or legal guardian sign a waiver. For more information: bestparksever.com

The schedule for the canoemobile is as follows:

Friday, October 5 from 10am - 4:30pm
Shawnee Park

(Located on Southwestern Pkwy, on the north side of the park)

Saturday, October 6 10am - 4:30pm

Understanding Revitalization and Gentrification

Tuesday, October 3rd at 5:30 pm - 7:30pm
1619 flux Art + Activism (1619 W. Main Street)

The "Connecting Conversations" series began in early 2016 to inspire honest dialogue around issues vital to an inclusive community and healthy neighborhoods. Community leaders and citizens from across the city gather to share ideas and develop solutions to challenging issues facing Louisville's most disadvantaged neighborhoods.

Louisville Urban League Brings Miniature Golf to Broadway

Open daily until 4:00pm

Next to the Louisville Urban League (1535 W. Broadway)

Thanks to the opening of a miniature golf course, west Louisville now has a new place that families can use to help improve their skills and further pursue their passion for this popular game. The Louisville Urban League (LUL) recently opened the course next to their headquarters on West Broadway, and welcomes the community to enjoy this investment in fun. The new 18-hole course is free and open to the community. LUL will provide the clubs and golf balls to anyone with an I.D. or a deposit of a personal item.

Buffalo Soldiers of Kentucky to Host Memorial Dedication for Colonel Charles Young

September 22 at 1:00pm
Colonel Charles Young Park (2721 Lytle Street)

The Buffalo Soldiers of Kentucky will host a Memorial Dedication for Colonel Charles Young, a decorated American Military Commander, at the park named in his honor on September 22, 2018. The event will begin at 1pm at Colonel Charles Young Park located at 2721 Lytle Street (Lytle Street West of 27th Street) in the Portland neighborhood. Colonel Young was a native Kentuckian born in Mayslick, Kentucky. The park is the site of a former African-American elementary school that opened in 1876 as the Portland Colored School and renamed Charles Young School during the 1925-26 school year. The school closed after the 1955-56 school year and was demolished, making way for the park soon after.

Metro Parks and Recreation Fall Open House Meetings

Thursday, November 8 from 6:00pm -7:30pm
Molly Leonard Portland Community Center
(640 N. 27th Street)

Louisville Parks and Recreation will be hosting seven open house-style public meetings beginning September 13 at the California Community Center. Director Seve Ghose said the meetings will not necessarily focus on a particular topic but will give the public an opportunity to ask questions and voice concerns. "We're looking forward to having a conversation and hearing the public's ideas on how we can improve what we're doing," said Ghose. The following meetings will be held from 6:00pm -7:30pm in District 5:

Thursday, November 8 from 6:00pm -7:30pm
Molly Leonard Portland Community Center
(640 N. 27th Street)

The Filson Historical Society Presents: Made to Order the Fashion of Geneva Howard Bell Ends December 7, 2018 Filson Historical Society (1310 S. 3rd Street)

The exhibition includes custom-made textiles and hats from educator and activist Geneva Howard Bell's (1905-2013) collection, dating between 1970 and 1990. The exhibition also features photographs of Geneva and her husband, Dr. Jesse Bell (1904-1998), the first African American physician at Louisville's Jewish Hospital.

Curators and Filson staff will be available to answer questions about the items on display and the history behind them. This exhibit is free and open to the public. For more information about these and other upcoming exhibits, please visit filsonhistorical.org/exhibits.

Get Your Vegetables from the New Roots Fresh Stop Market!

The Fresh Stop Markets (FSM) are run by leaders in a grassroots food justice movement that operates from the belief that fresh food is a basic human right. FSMs are volunteer, community-driven farm-fresh food markets that pop up bi-weekly at local churches and community centers in neighborhoods that do not have grocery stores or farmers' markets. Shareholders ("customers") agree to cooperate and pay ahead of time, on an income-based sliding scale. The sliding scale means food is affordable and everyone is included.

WIC participants pay $6, those at or below 185 percent federal poverty guidelines pay $12, others pay $25, and those who would like to invest in the community pay $40. SNAP IS ACCEPTED. Everyone gets the same food! To purchase vegetables from the next market call 509-6770.

The Fresh Stop Markets in District 5 will be in the following locations:

Chickasaw (Westwood Presbyterian Church, 4432 Greenwood Ave.):

August 30, September 13, and September 27 from 4:30pm - 6:30pm

Shawnee (Redeemer Lutheran Church, 3640 River Park Dr.):

August 30, September 13, and September 27 from 4:30pm - 6:30pm
