

Do you live or work in Park Hill or Algonquin?

RE:LAND GROUP

Join the new Park Hill/Algonquin Community of Opportunity to help create the Rhodia site & neighborhood development

Re:land is creating a 30-member Community of Opportunity made up of neighborhood youth, seniors, local businesses, civic organizations, educators, health care providers, housing partners and more to help us understand what is great about this community so we can collectively build a shared vision for neighborhood change.

Community of Opportunity Roles

Park Hill/Algonquin Community of Opportunity members of all ages will participate in a series of 8 workshops and activities over the next 6 months to shape the use of the 17-acre Rhodia site and adjacent neighborhood assets.

Community Education & Design Development Workshops

Education on health equity and community power will be led in the Health Equity Learning Academy (HELA) by BKP Strategies, along with complementary design workshops facilitated in partnership with Hester Street. No previous experience or knowledge is required, just bring yourself and your life experiences.

Workshop Sessions will include discussions on:

Health Equity & Community Power (HELA Academy)

- What is health equity?
- How does design impact my community?
- What are the assets of my community?
- How do policies impact our everyday lives?
- What is power and how does it move?

Site Design & Development

- What are the development goals & principles?
- What are community priorities & opportunities?
- What are some desired programs, services & amenities?
- What short & long-term interventions are important for the community?

Timeline & Schedule (May-Oct 2022)

There will be 8 workshops spread across 6 months. Workshops will be held 1-2 times a month and require a total time commitment of 2-4 hours per month. Workshops will be a mix of in-person and virtual gatherings. Exact dates will be determined by Community of Opportunity members' availability.

Compensation

All members of the Park Hill/Algonquin Community of Opportunity will be compensated with $50 per meeting.

Will you join us?

Community input is critical to shaping how the future Rhodia site is redeveloped. If you would like to join the Community of Opportunity, please complete the interest form linked below:

<https://tinyurl.com/RelandCAB>