SSNA ANNUAL ELECTIONS NOV. 20

The next meeting of the SSNA will be held on Sunday, Nov. 20, at 5 pm at the Kling Center, 219 W. Ormsby Ave. At this meeting, we'll be electing new officers and directors for 2023. See page 3 for a list of candidates. We will also decide on annual donations to charities. Afterwards, please join us for a scrumptious potluck at the Hudsons, 1391 S. 2nd St.

DINER'S CLUB MEETS DEC. 1

You never know where the 2nd Street Singles Diner's Club might end up for dinner. The only exception is during our December outing. We have a tradition of treating ourselves to some of the best fine dining in town to ring in the holidays and reflect on another year of food and fellowship. Please consider joining us at Buck's Restaurant and Bar, 425 W Ormsby Ave, on December 1st at 6 pm.

Buck's was established in 1992. Their website boasts, "The restaurant is a proud member of the Urban Bourbon Trail with more than 50 bourbon selections behind the bar, and Chef Tony Lombardo takes pride in serving Kentucky Proud ingredients."

The purpose of the club is to give members who do not enjoy going to a restaurant alone an opportunity to dine with each other. However, anyone can attend.

For more information, please contact Helga Ulrich at hhubmw@gmail.com or Stan Duffy at stan.duffy@yahoo.com so that you can be included in our reservations. Bon appétit!

HOLIDAY HOME TOUR DEC. 3-4

The annual Old Louisville Holiday Home Tour will be returning the first weekend of December, Dec. 3-4, from 12-5 pm. Always a fun time, it's the primary fundraising event for the Old Louisville Neighborhood Council. The event is a self-paced, easy walking tour of about three blocks around the Central Park area. Free parking is available on-street and at various lots nearby.

One of the highlights of the tour is the annual Carriage Trade, a holiday bazaar at the Women's Club, 1320 S. 4th. A chance to start your holiday shopping early, it's open from 12-5 pm both days.

Advance tickets are $30 a person and can be purchased online at:

www.oldlouisville.org/holiday-home-tour. (If you can't purchase them before the day of the event, price goes up to $35. Children 12 and under get in free). Ticket pickup is at the Old Louisville Information Center in Central Park.

Another option: free tickets. Volunteer shifts are just three hours each, To sign up, go to <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/60b084daba82ca7fa7-oldlouisville3>

BOOK CLUB TO MEET DEC. 5

The next meeting of the SSNA Book Club will be Dec. 5 at 7 pm at the home of Sam Wesrock, 1913 Bonnycastle Ave. in the Highlands.

This month's selection is Honey from the Lion, a novel by Matthew Null. Set in 1904, it tells the story of union organizing during a time when lumber barons were ripping up West Virginia's ancient forests. This intense story is hard to put down.

January's selection is Cricket on the Hearth. We'll meet on Jan. 2 at 7 pm.

For more info, contact Rev. Greg Moore at PresbyRev@yahoo.com or call 502-599-9414.

2-WAY TRAFFIC ON 2ND AND 3RD?

The SSNA is conducting an important Traffic/Transportation Survey per the request of the Old Louisville Neighborhood Council. The survey is to gauge the neighborhood response to two-way traffic conversion on 2nd and 3rd Streets, curb-side markings, I-65 access and other critical questions. Please take the time to complete a short survey: <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSeh4ygKaC5IohuGg5db0fuXeFtiwOTqTO4dGiEoF7GTmoZVbQ/viewform> The survey must be completed no later than November 14. It will only take a couple minutes of your time.

ROYAL WETZEL REMEMBERED

Royal Wetzel, loving husband of Lou Jane and father of two daughters, passed away on Sept. 23. Royal had a passion for music. He was a talented pianist/organist who played for several local churches. He also shared his music with Joyous Singers as both a pianist and a singer. He was known for his quick wit and his smile. "Each of you has added to my life experiences, some a little, some a lot, but all important." Royal noted before his passing. "Without you my life would have been much less exciting and interesting. For that I thank you all." Royal was a long-time member of the SSNA. Fond memories and expressions of sympathy may be shared at www.neptunesociety.com/location/louisville-cremation.
