

Join a free ACTING ENSEMBLE WORKSHOP for VETERANS
at the Studio at the Chesapeake Shakespeare Company

Above: Richard III, Right, Much Ado About Nothing. Photos by Teresa Castracane and C. Stanley Photography. Image courtesy of Vet Arts Connect.

Olive Branch and Laurel Crown: Peace and War through Shakespeare's Text

FREE acting ensemble course for U.S. Veterans

The Studio at the Chesapeake Shakespeare Company

206 E. Redwood Street, Baltimore, MD 21202 - near the Inner Harbor

SPRING 2018 DATES: Tuesdays, March 20, 2018 through May 22, 2018
6:30pm - 9:00pm each session

Explore themes of peace and war in Shakespeare's plays during this free 10-week course culminating in a performance for family, friends, and invited guests. No acting experience is needed. Enjoy a one-of-a-kind learning experience with Chesapeake Shakespeare Company's Teaching Artists offered in association with Vet Arts Connect, an initiative of The Institute for Integrative Health.

FOR DETAILS: Visit ChesapeakeShakespeare.com/for-U-S-Veterans or contact Ron Heneghan, Director of Community Engagement, Chesapeake Shakespeare Company, at heneghan@chesapeakeshakespeare.com 410-244-8571, Ext. 113

*To help our veterans, The Institute in partnership with Vet Arts Connect program partners, is conducting an evaluation to see how participating in the arts may affect veterans' overall health and well being. This will be done with some simple surveys.