DEATH PENSION

Death pension is a benefit payable to eligible dependents of a deceased veteran who served during a wartime period. You may be eligible if:

- the deceased veteran was discharged from service under other than dishonorable conditions, AND
- the veteran served 90 days or more of active duty with at least 1 day during a period of war*, AND
- You are the surviving spouse or unmarried child of the deceased veteran, AND
- your countable income is below a yearly income limit set by law.

Anyone who enlists after September 7, 1980, generally must have served at least 24 months or the full period for which called or ordered to active duty.*

INCOME LIMITS (EFFECTIVE DECEMBER 1, 2019– PLEASE SEE NEXT PAGE)

The amount of pension payable is the difference between your countable income and the yearly income limit that describes your situation (see chart above). This difference is generally paid in 12 equal monthly payments rounded down to the nearest dollar.

SPECIAL MONTHLY PENSION

You may be entitled to an additional amount of death pension in the following circumstances:

Housebound

You may be entitled to the housebound benefit if your disabilities are of such a nature that you are unable to leave your home without assistance, or if you meet certain federal regulatory requirements.

Aid and Attendance

You may be entitled to aid and attendance if you are (1) in an approved skilled nursing facility, (2) blind or so nearly blind to have corrected visual acuity of 5/200 or less, or (3) if your disabilities are of such severity that you require the assistance of another person for self-care functions (e.g. preparing your meals, dressing, bathing, etc.) an additional amount of disability pension is payable.

Un-reimbursed Medical Expenses

Your countable family income (income for VA purposes) may be reduced by the amount of un-reimbursed medical expenses you incur that exceed 5% of the Maximum Annual Pension Rate.

NET WORTH

The VA cannot pay you pension if your net worth is sizeable. Net worth is the market value of all interest and rights you have in any kind of property less any mortgages or other claim against the property. However, net worth does not include the house you live in or a reasonable area of land it sits on. Net worth also does not include the value of personal things you use everyday like your vehicle, clothing and furniture

If you apply for any of the above benefits you will need to provide the VA with information about your medical treatment, you and your family’s income and net worth, and un-reimbursed medical expenses for the past 12 months.

If you believe you may be entitled to any of the above benefits, or should you have question or wish to applies, please contact our office. We can provide you with additional information and assist you in applying for any of the above benefits.
