What is
Contact Tracing?

Contact tracing is a tool that helps identify those who may have come into contact with someone who tested positive for COVID-19.

Trained professionals reach out to those who have tested positive and those who may have been exposed. They provide an opportunity for people to ask questions and access any resources they may need for safe isolation or quarantine. We're in this together and we want to help!

MD COVID

(240) 466-4488

Accept

The Maryland Department of Health can make a presentation to your organization on why contact tracing is important for you, for your family, and your community.

Contact Sarah Linden at sarah.linden@maryland.gov to learn more about contact tracing and its impact on COVID-19 in your community.

Learn more about how contact tracing can fight COVID-19 at covidlink.maryland.gov

@MDHealthDept

Maryland
DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH