Maryland Cultural and Conference Center (MC3) and Warrior Music Foundation (WMF) 501(c)(3) will present an all day outdoor music festival on September 11, 2021. The event will feature eight local and national musicians/bands on MC3's outdoor stage and will honor the strong veteran community here in Maryland. Performances by Veer, Voices for Vets, Zach Bella, Sarah Paige, Mac & Blue, Pat Renny, With Satellites and Ryan Keith. There will also be an evening candlelight ceremony to honor the 20th anniversary of September 11th.

The day will also include a silent auction, multiple food and drink vendors, and information on other local veterans and arts organizations. Attendees will learn and witness how a wide array of veteran-focused organizations in combination with arts programming can improve mental health and wellness amongst our veteran community. This event will highlight education and awareness of veterans resources, remember September 11th and the sacrifice of our service members, and exemplify the healing power of live music.

Tickets are $25 and are available now via Eventbrite. Visit MC3 at www.mc3annapolis.org or WMF at www.warriormusicfoundation.org for more information.

About Veer

Warriors in the Park will feature VEER, an award-winning hard rock band from Annapolis, Maryland, founded in 2016 by Ronald Malfi, Jon Malfi, Ryan Fowler, and Christian Mathis. The band's energetic live performances has quickly earned them a place among the mid-Atlantic's elite, and they have been direct support for a number of national acts, including Buckcherry, Sponge, Fuel, Puddle of Mudd, Trapt and 40 Below Summer.

Band member Jon Malfi announces, "We are very excited to have our first show in 18 months be for such a great cause. We love what Warrior Music Foundation stands for, and all the good they do! This is a perfect event to kick off our next string of show dates."
