Message from AVECO's President

Written by Andrea Wheeler

Hello spring! As a midwestern girl, I am ready for the warm and renewed energy that comes with spring. Speaking on behalf of the AVECO Board of Directors we are excited for all we have planned for the remainder of 2022, and have created this community notice to share our upcoming plans.

AVECO has begun planning for the 2022 annual conference to take place in Arlington, VA - Washington, D.C. - July 10-14, 2022 and our second mini conference scheduled for April 7, 2022.

Additionally, AVECO would like to announce the new AVECO Scholarship Program. The new scholarship program is aimed at non-traditional students who are passionate about meeting their educational goals. The scholarship is open to current undergraduate and graduate veterans, active-duty service members, and spouses of active-duty service members, and the organization will award 3 scholarships in each category; First place: $1,000.00, Second Place: $700.00 and Third Place: $500.00..

On behalf of the AVECO Board I wish you well and a successful fall semester.

AVECO Scholarship

Paying it Forward with Three New Scholarship Opportunities

AVECO announces the launch of its scholarship program for the 2022-2023 academic year. The new scholarship program is aimed at students passionate about meeting their educational goals.

The scholarship is open to current undergraduate and graduate veteran, active-duty service members, and spouses of active-duty service members and will award 3 scholarships in each category; First place: $1,000.00, Second Place: $700.00 and Third Place: $500.00

AVECO believes that education bears enormous potential to initiate change, and eligible students will play an important role in shaping the future for their families and the world.

With its new scholarships, AVECO hopes to turn passion for education into action and invites eligible students to apply. Eligibility requirements can be found on the AVECO website at www.aveco.org.

Please note the student must be currently enrolled in an educational program at a regional or national accredited member institution of AVECO.

Essays are being accepted beginning March 7th through April 29th, 2022. The winners will be announced at the AVECO Annual Conference in July 2022.
